4-H News

Woodworking
By John Qualls, Reporter
The Woodworking Club met on January 18, 1989. We have new members including Joe Bacon, Brent Wright, John Qualls, A.J. Tarnasky and Jim Kindle. Joe is making a stool, Brent is making a desk and John is making a night table. A.J. and Jim are helping leader Tim Coe.

Horses Etc
By Jossie Evans, Reporter
On Saturday, January 28, Horses Etc. held a meeting at the fairgrounds. President Tiffanie Munkers called the meeting to order. We talked about the new 4-H Ranch Horse program that is being offered in our club this year. We were reminded to pay our club dues for the year and think of a community service project.
With no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Food Factory
By Melissa McElligott, Reporter
January 10 was the first meeting for second year cooking club. We elected officers. They are: president Lynde Minster, vice president Brian Papineau, secretary Becky Wagenblast and reporter Melissa McElligott.
January 25 we met again and did a food quiz. We talked about maybe having a bake sale February 10 with the first and third year cooking groups.

Martingales

By Brenda Holtz, Reporter
The Martingales held a 4-H horse meeting the 29th at 3 p.m. and it lasted until 4 p.m.
We are going to have a community cleanup May 20 to help the community. We are also going to have a bake sale February 24 after school in front of the Lone Hardware store. Our next 4-H meeting is February 26, 1989.

Ewes "R" Us

By Kelsie Evans, Reporter
The meeting was called to order by last year's president Nance Wright at 7:15 p.m. We took role call and read the minutes which were approved. We elected officers for 1989. They are: President Tricia Coe, vice president Kristi O'Brien, secretary/treasurer Jenny Krein, reporter Kelsie Evans.
Under old business we discussed having a bake sale at the St. Patrick's Day Celebration March 18. Under new business we discussed having someone come and talk to us about feeding and our market lambs and picking our lambs for fair. The meeting was adjourned by president Tricia Coe at 8:15.

I CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank everyone for the cards, flowers, gifts and all the support and love you have shown us during the loss of our loved one, Jon. Although we knew you but a short time, you've accepted us into your hearts and homes. We would especially like to thank Roger and Rita Britt-we'd have been lost without you. Dell, Marie and Delbert Turner-for your friendship, Betty and Ellis Pettyjohn for opening their home to the family, and Barb and Sid Zinter for friendship and giving "Alvin" a place to winter. Thanks also to the ladies of the Christian Life Center for the great dinner provided. Many people brought food all during the week-some whose names we do not know. Only in Heppner could people be so kind and generous. We pray for and thank you all.

I wish to thank all of our friends for the many cards, prayers, calls and visits while I was in the hospital; and for the food and other forms of support you gave my family. Your love and care helped us through a difficult time. Thank you for being there.
