Ione played an intense game Saturday, January 28, against the Sherman County Huskies but lost 69-58. Ione played a tough defense and was able to hold Sherman's 6'9" senior Ray Brown to 10 points in the entire first half. They closed him off completely from the basket in the third quarter.

Brian Ball and Kyle Broderick both hit 3-pointers in the first quarter to only be down by one in the first quarter with a score of 13-14.

Five consecutive free throws by Mike Garrett and two 3-point shots by Kyle Broderick gave Ione a 33-31 lead at the half.

A 16 point in the 3rd quarter by Sherman's Joe Juteson was more of a deficit than Ione could overcome where the entire team only scored 11 points in the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter Dustin Padberg had five points, three free throw points. Garrett had four points and two free throws and Broderick had his fifth 3-pointer.

Ione lost the game 69-58.

Freshman boys have 10-1 in basketball season

Heppner's Frosh stayed unbeaten at home with a 54-45 win against Riverside on January 26.

Heppner raced to a 21-7 advantage after one quarter of play. The Mustangs kept rolling in the second period to build a commanding 37-13 lead at halftime.

The Mustangs held a comfortable 46-25 lead after three quarters and coasted from there to register their tenth win of the year against one loss.

Jason Britt knocked down 16 points to take scoring honors while Richard Pettyjohn added 14. Gabe Garcia and Charlie Rathbun chipped in nine points apiece. Rathbun worked hard inside for 11 rebounds while Garcia and Ryan Currin contributed five steals each.

"This team has come a long way since the beginning of the season," commented Heppner's coach John Boyer. "Not just at basketball skills but as individuals as well. They are a pleasure to coach."

Heppner's last home game of the year will be February 7 at 6 p.m. against the Condon J.V.'s.

Cardinals teamwork pays off

By Michelle Papineau

Tuesday, January 24, the Ione Cardinals traveled to Arlington for league basketball play. Ione's bench came onto the floor to end a game full of teamwork with a score of Ione 64 Arlington 25.

The starting five played an explosive first quarter successfully passing the ball to jump to a 21-4 lead.

The bench took over in the second quarter to continue the Cardinal attack. Freshman Kari Morgan had six 2nd quarter points and led the Cards with eight rebounds. The half-time score was Ione 32 Arlington 15.

The starting five again took the floor in the 3rd quarter. Jo Cupps had six of the 18 third quarter points. Cupps also had four game steals to intimidate the Honkers with Darcee Padberg stealing three to aid Cupps in the effort. Ione led by 31 points with a score of Ione 50, Arlington 21.

The bench came out in the 4th quarter prepared to finish them off. The bench scoring was led by Michelle Papineau with six 4th quarter points. Papineau led the team scoring with 11. The Lady Cards played with great intensity to beat the Honkers 64 to 25.

The Heppner Fillies came out very slow and flat against Riverside but held on for their ninth straight victory 51-33 Friday night.

After one period of play, the Fillies held a slight advantage, 11-8. Sandi Turner scored five points in the quarter to lead Heppner.

Heppner picked up the pace in the second quarter and outscored the Pirates by 12 points. The Fillies did not let Riverside score a field goal and led 28-13 at halftime. Turner and Jennifer Currin combined for 13 of Heppner's points in the period. In the second half, it was Heppner who could not score any field goals. Fortunately during the third quarter the Fillies were 5-5 from the charity stripe. Riverside outscored Heppner in the period but were not able to narrow the Fillies' lead much.

The final quarter saw Heppner once again take off, even though shooting a terrible 15% from the field. Currin scored six points to lead Heppner to the win.

Currin paced the Fillies with a game high 20 points and Turner chipped in 16. They both also had excellent defensive games combining for 17 steals. Tami Lindsay pull-

The Ione JV's came out to play Friday January 27, against the Helix Grizzlies. The Cardinals defeated the larger Grizzlies in a three quarter game 35-24.

Kristine Bedortha led the JV team with 10 points, eight in the first quarter. Ione jumped to a commanding lead and never faltered as the first quarter ended with a score of Ione 12, Helix 7.

The Cardinals kept up their excellent team work. They managed to break the Helix press and Wendy Anderson played strong under the hoop pulling down a team high seven rebounds. The Lady Cards outscored Helix 13-8 leaving the score at halftime Ione 25 to Helix 15.

The Grizzlies made a run at the Cardinals in the third and final quarter, but it wasn't enough to offset their deficit. Ione won 35-24.
