Mustangs lose in District 7A championship game

Heppner's Russell Britt looks for way around Pilot Rock defender in last Friday's District playoffs.

By Scott Johnston

It looked like the Mustangs were going to run away from the Rockets in the Championship game of the District 7A playoffs Friday, held in Pendleton. The Mustangs jumped out to an 8-0 lead after nearly 4 minutes of the opening quarter. Pilot Rock's first score came with 4:10 left in the quarter. Heppner sustained a 10 point lead until Ty Driskel dumped in a 3-point goal with 44 seconds left to cut the Mustang lead to 16-9 at the first break.

The Rockets caught fire in the second quarter as they scored the first five points to cut the Mustang lead to 16-14. The Rockets pulled even with Heppner at 22-22, then took their first lead of the game with a minute remaining and led at the half 25-24.

Heppner started out the second half just like the first half as they scored the first four points of the period. But Driskel, who had five three-point goals on the evening, connected on a 3-pointer to give the Rockets the lead for good 32-30 half way through the third period.

The Rockets pulled out to a 10 point lead with five minutes left in the game. The Mustangs made one final run at the Rockets but the rally died as Britt was called for traveling on the fast break. The two points were nullified which would have cut the Rocket lead to 56-51. Coach Royer who couldn't believe the call was slapped with a technical foul. Pilot Rock hit both free-throws to boost their lead to nine points. The Rockets hit three late free-throws to win the championship 67-59.

Bryan Padberg led the Mustangs with 21 points followed closely by Russell Britt's 18 points. The Mustangs were out rebounded by the Rockets 36-25. Slater Mitchell pulled down 10 of the Mustangs 25 rebounds. Ty Driskel led the Regional bound Rockets with a game high 23 points mostly from long range. Scott Miller chipped in with 21 for Pilot Rock.
