

The Leprechaun
By Kristi Worden

Once upon a time I saw a leprechaun girl and a leprechaun boy. Their names were Kathleen and Patrick. They were friends. They were about to fall off a cliff. I saved them. They gave me three wishes. I wished I could have a leprechaun. The next morning I looked in my back porch. The leprechauns were there.

The Bored Leprechauns
By Julie Watkins

Once upon a time there was a sister and brother leprechaun. Everybody said they were too little to do anything. They were bored. So they went out. They saw a pot of gold and they took it. When they got home all the leprechauns were surprised. Now they were rich and they got to do anything they wanted.

Obituaries

Dale Robert Jones

A service of remembrance was held at Gables Sunrise Chapel in Portland for Dale Robert Jones. Jones was born in Baker February 6, 1917, to Mary Gilkison Jones and Robert Jones. He passed away at his home in Portland on March 11. He spent his early life in the Baker area before serving in the U.S. Army. He and his wife Faye moved to Camp 5 where he was employed by Kinzua until his retirement. They moved to Portland when Camp 5 was disassembled. His wife Faye passed away in July 1986 in Portland. Survivors include a son, Bob; a brother Berl, Klamath Falls; sisters Rosemary Mitchell, Baker; and Hilda McCamber, Mt. Vernon and several nieces and nephews. Concluding services were at the Willamette National Cemetery.

Ina M. Byrd

Ina Marie Byrd, 67, of Rufus, died Tuesday, March 14, 1989 at the Columbia Basin Nursing Home in The Dalles. The funeral was Saturday at Spencer, Libby & Powell Funeral Home at The Dalles. Concluding service and burial was at Sunrise Cemetery in Wasco. A native of Oregon, she was born Nov. 12, 1921, in Rufus to Wallace N. and Pearl W. Jones. She grew up in Rufus and attended 12 years of school there. She lived for a short time at New Plymouth, Idaho. On Aug. 1, 1940, she married Robert W. Byrd in Goldendale, Wash. Since 1956, the couple had operated a farm supply business at Rufus. Mrs. Byrd was a lifetime member of Rufus Grange 826. She was active in ceramics club, knitting club and the Red Cross swimming program. She had been a member of the scholarship selection committee for Sherman County High School; a member of Rufus School Board 3 and the Vector Control Board. Survivors include her husband at home; sons, Robert Jr. of Irrigon and Loren of Condon; daughters Linda Brege of Rufus and Janice Strand of Portland; sister, Ada Meyers of Vancouver, Wash., and 10 grandchildren. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, Sherman County Chapter, or the Rufus Volunteer Ambulance.

John Leland Brisbois

John Leland Brisbois was born December 14, 1926 at Lafayette, to Wallace Pence Brisbois and Eula May (Bennett) Brisbois and passed away on March 15, 1989. Lee lived in the Izee area until he was three, then moved with his family to Spray where he was raised. He attended Spray Schools and graduated with the class of 1944. After graduation Lee worked in the woods and in road construction moving to Dayton, Washington in 1957. While there he met and married Ellen Hawks in 1959. Lee and Ellen moved to Spray in 1965 making their home there while following construction jobs. He was involved in youth and community events, was active in helping with 4-H projects and attended all the school functions, following and supporting the ball teams wherever they went. An avid hunter, Lee thoroughly enjoyed the outdoors. One of his biggest joys was feeding and caring for his livestock on the ranch where he could stand and look at Tamarack Mountain. He raised quarter horses and spent many hours caring for and riding them. He also enjoyed watching them run. He was preceded in death by his brother Phillip Brisbois and his parents Pence and Eula. Lee is survived by his wife Ellen; sons Ronny L. of Heppner and Larry W. of Kennewick, WA; a daughter Cassandra Reyes of Woodburn; step-daughter, Randy Britt, Echo; five grandchildren and two sisters Joyce Adams, Spray; and Patricia Adams of Kennewick, WA; and several nieces and nephews.

Dee Jones

The funeral for Thelma Dee Jones will be 1 p.m. Thursday at the First Christian Church in Heppner. Concluding service and burial will be at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery. Mrs. Jones, 68, of Heppner, died Sunday, March 19, 1989, at Pioneer Memorial Hospital. She was born Sept. 7, 1920, in Shilo, Ark., to Elijah and Thena Hooten Davis. She grew up in Arkansas and attended school there. After college she worked in a library, then at a hospital during World War II. On Oct. 7, 1944, she married Marcel Jones at Paris, Ark. The couple came to Heppner after their marriage and operated a ranch just outside of town. Mrs. Jones was a member of the First Christian Church and also taught kindergarten from 1964 until 1972. Survivors include her husband; son Ron of Sweet Home; daughter, Judith Denning of Portland; mother Thena Davis of Searcy, Ark.; brother Lester Davis of Cotton Plant, Ark.; sisters Jane Wilson and Mae Jenkins both of Morrilton, Ark. and Ila Nichols of Searcy and two grandchildren. Memorial contributions may be made to the Salvation Army, P.O. Box 2823, Portland, OR 97208. Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner is in charge of arrangements.

The Four Leaf Clover
