Chief Rathbun's Tips

It's the time of year when salesmen begin coming into Heppner to sell door to door.

All salesmen should have a Heppner City license. Ask to see it. Be wary. The license merely shows that officials are aware that they are selling in the city and that a drivers license check shows they are not wanted by the police.

The license in no way insures the quality of the merchandise or that you will receive merchandise to be sent later. Salesmen are, generally, honest people. This is just a word to the wise.
