Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

As I drove through the rolling hills of Heppner this a.m. I determined that it's much more relaxing to be a 16 mile commuter in rural eastern Oregon than in a metropolitan area. The drive gives one a chance to get some perspective on their life and to try to sort out the jumble "upstairs." A fresh snowfall capped the mountains, Heppner Hills are greening up, calves, lambs, and new colts dot the hillsides. Soon you drop into a small town, not a mall like every other mall, but with small businesses to explore and the opportunity to purchase anything you really need to exist. Of course, sometimes malls are exciting, if you need "things". On the other hand, I'm sure exploring small friendly communities is exciting to many others. Hold that thought as we get our community "ship-shape" for visitors. There's a lot to offer here. If we're proud of it, if we promote it, if we work together, it will thrive.

*Heppner Elementary school hosts the Portland 8th graders this week. Chamber packets were included with their ranch tour information. Many of these boys and girls keep in touch with their host families over the years and return more than once with their parents to visit. A film documentary is being made of this year's tour.

*Next week is Chamber's business and board meeting. This is the time to share your thoughts, concerns, meeting reports, new ideas, etc. Join us Tuesday, noon. Elks.

Thought for the week: "April is the month when the green returns to the lawn, the lilac, and the IRS."

Chief Rathbun's Tips

With the arrival of spring and summer, children will be playing outside and riding their bikes. Drivers, please be careful and parents, remind your children of basic safety rules.
