Engagements

Haggard — Hughes

Dan and Gail Haggard of Talent announce the engagement of their daughter Angelina Marie to William Kevin Hughes. The bride-elect is a graduate of Phoenix High School and a student at Blue Mountain Community College, majoring in Ag Production. Hughes, the son of Merlin and Claudia Hughes of Heppner is a graduate of Heppner High School and Blue Mountain Community College in Ag Production. He is employed on the Hughes ranch and by American Breeding Services, Wisconsin in the Heppner area. The couple will be married July 8 in Medford.

Morrow County to receive 6 Japanese students

The youth are matched according to age and sex with Morrow County youth. Families that sincerely want a Japanese child in their home, and have children between the ages of 12-18 are asked to contact Monica Swanson, Morrow County Program Coordinator at 422-7162 in Ione.

The timing of the visit is very rigid because Japanese children have only a 40 day school vacation.

Host families are constantly reminded not to alter the daily life of their homes. Experiencing life in Morrow County as it truly exists is the heart of the program.

In June, the 150 Bound-for Oregon Exchanges will be matched with their host families and correspondence is begun. This letter exchange is a meaningful part of the program, because it also involves the adults and causes the Japanese parents to feel more secure about their child traveling so far. Many adult and whole family friendships have resulted.

After the Japanese child has stayed in the American home, it is hoped that the American boy or girl will visit Japan the following summer on the Out Bound program, and stay in his Japanese friend's home. It is the program goal that the relationship will be one of a lifetime.

Oregon 4-H has been hosting Japanese children since 1973, so this will be the 17th exchange. For a host family application, or more information, contact Monica Swanson, 422-7162, in Ione, or the Morrow County Extension Office, 676-9642 in Heppner.

Coe attends leadership conference

Tricia Coe, a sophomore at Heppner High School, recently participated in the Hugh O'Brien Oregon Leadership Conference in Portland. Coe, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Coe of Heppner, was chosen to represent Heppner High School last fall. She joined one sophomore from each of 213 high schools throughout Oregon at the conference.

Leaders of Oregon industries and businesses presented panels during the conference on a wide variety of topics to develop leadership. A college fair was presented one night of the conference. The participants also had the opportunity to tour three different colleges in the Portland area and Dornbecker Children's Hospital.

Coe's expenses for the Conference were paid in full by Oregon businesses.

Coe is an honor student at Heppner High School and active in school and the Heppner community. She said of the conference that it was fun, exciting and that because of all of the activities she got very little sleep. She will have the opportunity to put what she learned to work immediately as a newly elected officer of the Heppner High School student body and in helping to organize the newly formed Heppner High Against Drugs and Drinking chapter of Oregon Student Safety on the Move.

Court club reserved for RHS graduation party

Riverside parents met Tuesday, May 2, at Riverside High School to discuss plans for the all-night Senior Party which is scheduled for Friday, May 26, following commencement ceremonies.

"Operation Graduation" is a safe, alcohol and drug-free celebration which has been held for the past four years by parents of Riverside seniors. More and more high schools in Oregon have begun to endorse the idea which started in 1979 in Maine after a graduation night left 12 kids slaughtered on the highways in one commencement weekend. "Tragic at any time, deaths and injuries are especially heartbreaking when they occur during the graduation season, at a time when young people, their families and friends are looking forward to bright futures and happy lives," commented Sharon Barrick, Riverside High School counselor. "The school supports the idea wholeheartedly and is working with these parents to provide a fun-filled graduation night that the class of 1989 will remember forever."

Plans are underway to reserve the Tri-City Court Club and the seniors will be polled regarding their choice of foods, activities and entertainment. Parents and public who want to make a contribution are invited to send donations or items suitable for door prizes to "Operation Graduation", P.O. Box 140, Boardman, Oregon 97818.

R.S.V.P. volunteers honored

Where were the volunteers? Most of them didn't show up for the Morrow County volunteer day potluck luncheon held at the Elks club Thursday, April 27.

Presiding was Bob Skoubo, head of Morrow/Umatilla County R.S.V.P. and his assistant Judy. Also attending was Mary Reamer from ECOAC and 11 volunteers from Heppner.

Bob complimented the group on the volunteers who give many hours to the Neighborhood Center, Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home and Senior Mealsite.

Delicious food was enjoyed while white elephants were exchanged and five wore hats for the theme "Hats off to R.S.V.P." (retired senior voluntary program.)

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

A new combination bumper pool and game table has been presented to the center for the recreation room by Lillian Boyce in memory of Ray Boyce a former member of the Senior Center Board of Directors.

A new card table was added to our rec room last week by the Willows Grange.

Velma Huston Parker of Pasco sent an antique table used in Mrs. Luper's Millinery Shop located on Main Street from 1910 to 1926. This joins a rocker owned by May Gilliam of the historic Gilliam and Bisbee Store. The rocker was presented to us by her son and daughter-in-law, Howard and Helen Gilliam. We love having these authentic antique pieces in our center.

This week: Thursday: Kiwanis luncheon and meeting at 12 noon. Friday: 9 to 11 a.m. - coffee hour in the rec. room. Everyone welcome. Next week: Wednesday: Mother's Day Dinner at noon. Menu-roast turkey with potatoes and gravy, cranberry sauce and juice, green beans and carrot salad, buttermilk biscuits, peach cobbler. Afternoon cards in the rec. room.

We still need more card tables, cards and games (all types). Many records were added to our stereo collection this week by Olive Nash.

Reminder: The recreation/sitting room is open every week day from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Hostesses this week are Myrna Toll, Flo Holt, Helen Dyer, Rachel Harnett, Ida Lynn and Millie Evans. Come by and chat, play cards or games or listen to records and tapes.

We now have a phone. Write our number in your book, 676-9030. Our new AAA supervisor, Marri Reimer, will be in the office on Wednesdays, or you can call and leave a message. Remember the number is 676-9030.

Everyone is invited to attend the Open House at the Senior Center Friday, May 19 from 2-5 p.m.

Make Mom's Day sparkle.

Just call or visit us today to send the FTD Crystal 'n' Blooms™ Bouquet. Mother's Week begins May 8. FTD® Flowers—the feeling never ends.™
