Hospital with an unknown illness; Morrow County deputy responded to Irrigon exit of I-84 to assist Oregon State Police with report of a two car accident. One female with unknown injuries was transported to Good Shepherd Hospital.

During the week of April 24-May 1, Morrow County deputies assisted one disabled motorist.

Two members of the Port of Morrow, Ken Turner and Gary Neil and Judge Louis Carlson were in Portland last week in conference with the Corps of Engineers on Master Planning the Willow Creek Lake area. The park district now has a line item in the Corps budget for $150,000 for the 1990-91 fiscal year which will be dedicated to RV parking, handicapped fishing area and better accessibility to waterfront areas.

There is one requirement, that the people of Morrow County provide matching funds in the amount of 50 percent to meet the Corps contribution. This can be done with state grants and local contributions of money and time. Five grants have been applied for to satisfy this requirement, says Judge Carlson.

Meanwhile, volunteers have started on the project and more help is needed.
