

4-H Week at Cutsforth Park

4-Hers have some very important discussions this week while attending 4-H summer camp at Cutsforth Park. They returned to town on Wednesday.

Kelsey Evans, Heppner, does string art at the 4-H summer camp held this past week at Cutsforth Park

The heart pumps blood through the labyrinth of 70,000 miles of blood vessels once a minute.

Every June, 4-Hers gather together their sleeping bags and gear and travel to Cutsforth Park in the Blue Mountains for four glorious days of being without mom and dad watching over their every move. Students from Morrow County met this week for some fun and learning and some very good food prepared by Jean Brazell of Lexington. They will go back home with some very good memories of camping to remember in the years ahead.

To Marsha and Charlie, the elegant diner for four that we purchased at the 1989 St. Patrick's Day Auction certainly lived up to our high expectations of Marsha's gourmet cooking. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all and the food was wonderful. We hope you auction off a meal again in 1990.
