

Food, food, food at the fair!

You say you like Fair and Rodeo? You say you like to eat? Well, the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo is the place for you beginning August 16.

Not only will there be the usual hamburgers, hot dogs, pop and candy, but several businesses are bringing special cuisines to the Morrow County Fairgrounds for this year's fair.

Once again, the Soroptimists are selling baked potatoes; they are sharing the inside kitchen with the Morrow County CattleWomen (Thai Ribbons, beef, of course,) and the Heppner Senior Citizens (homemade pies). Outside you will find tacos and taco salads, salted pretzels, and frozen yogurt (Kate's Pizza and Pastry), Deli and Sub Sandwiches (LaRae's Sub Shop), the annual Cowboy Breakfast (Wrangler's Riding Club), Spuds McVayes, BBQ Beef sandwiches, Beer Dogs, corn dogs, hot dogs, nachos and drinks (Vayes Concessions), beer at the Lone American Legion Beer Garden, and the usual good hamburgers, hot dogs, pop, candy and assorted fillers from the Snack Shack. The Snack Shack, run as a joint effort between the Morrow County 4-H'ers and the Heppner B.P.O.E., donates all profits to scholarships and youth programs in the area. It is run completely by volunteers.

Other food items offered this year include Hawaiian shaved ice, German Sausage, Cinnamon Sugar Crisps, and much, much more!

Number of stock up for livestock auction

The livestock auction will be held Saturday night, August 19, at 6 p.m. The number of livestock is up this year. There are about a third more market swine this year than last and the sheep number is also up from last year. There are a couple less steers than the last few years.

With the total numbers of livestock being up, previous buyers are encouraged to support the youth of Morrow County and also to find new supporters for the youth auction. Buyers that would like to support youth, but feel their budget can't, are encouraged to share the cost with another person. This helps the youth and makes it more affordable for you.

The auction is sponsored by the Morrow County Livestock Growers and the First Interstate Bank of Heppner.

'Stars on Parade' model at style show

Morrow County 4-H members will parade across the stage Thursday night at 7 p.m. Garments constructed by Clothing Project members will be modeled this night in the Style Revue. "My Favorite Outfit" Contest is open to any 4-H youth, not just clothing project members.

This contest is unique to Morrow

County, and the object is to promote consumerism, wise clothing selection and coordination. Favorite Outfit and Clothing projects will be modeled at the Style Revue.

Your attendance at the Style Revue will show recognition for the efforts of the participants. It will also give the public an opportunity to view 4-H Clothing projects.
