

Ione sweeps Riverside in volleyball

By Mikka Evans
Riverside Pirates met up with Ione Cardinals again last Thursday. The Cardinals came to Riverside and made all of Coach Barton's nightmares come true. For the second year in a row Riverside has beat Ione on their home court and then had Ione come back and kill them on RHS's court. Ione swept both games with the first ending with a score of 15-13 and the second ending 15-10.

Returning for Ione was starting setter Darcee Padberg who was gone because of a sprained ankle. Good setting and hitting by Padberg led the Cardinals to the win. The Cardinals also outshined the Pirates by getting 90% of their serves an improvement from last week's 77%. Sherri Lake's net game and Kassie Westmoreland's back court play kept the Pirates close. "They didn't do too bad overall," said coach Barton after the loss. "A few key things we need to work on will help. First, angle cover on defense and offensively getting our ball to our power hitter."

Starting for the Cardinals were Mary Cupps, Jo Cupps, Kari Morgan, Linda Morter, Darcee Padberg and Amy Wagenblast. Starting for the Pirates were Trina Sayles, Kassie Westmoreland, Sherri Lake, Wendy Dawson, Lisa Short and Marty Suter.

Riverside starts season with win

By Mikka Evans
Riverside started their season with a win Friday in Union. The Pirates won 26-6. Riverside's offense played exceptionally well the second half, leaving it open for Jon Horn to run for 123 yards.

Quarterback Jeremy Tovey was five for seven hitting Tonic Heiple twice for 44 yards. Also playing well were Fred Flores, Matt Andreason, Marco Reyes and David Reyes who combined to make 21 tackles. Coach Dirk Dirksen said "I feel positive that this team can have a very successful season." Coach Dirksen says he feels his team's attitude is super. Their playing was a little inconsistent in the first half but improved in the second half until they had the upperhand in the game.

OSU, AARP offer workshop for midlife older women

Did you know:
* The median income for women aged 65 and older is $6,425. This income includes earnings, Social Security, pensions and assets.
* The median income for all widows age 65 and older is $6,993. Fifty percent of women age 65 and older are widows.
* More than 3 1/4 million women ages 54 to 64 today lack any type of health insurance coverage.
* Statistics indicate that 50 percent of all marriages today end in divorce.
* The majority of women outlive men and a growing segment of women are choosing to stay single or are heads of household with dependents.
To help find solutions to these and other related problems, Oregon State University Extension Service and the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) are offering a seven-session workshop program beginning Thursday, October 5, at the Parish Hall, Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church, Hermiston. Especially designed for midlife and older women, the Women's Financial Information Program (WFIP) will include sessions on how to get organized to identify where you are now and where you want to be; how to know where your money is going and why to build financial security from the ground up; and how to create a budget, not just for necessities, but to allow for savings and a little more. The program will teach the participants how to conduct financial inventories; how to design personal cash flow systems; how to make decisions about credit and loan institutions, insurance programs, investments, real estate and savings; how to plan for retirement; and much, much more. The only cost for the seven-week seminar is a $15 registration fee. Persons attending will receive a money management workbook and other materials. The seminars will meet on Thursdays at 6:30 p.m. from October 5 to November 16 at Parish Hall-Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church in Hermiston. For registration information/brochure call Carol Bennett, 503-676-9642 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. before September 28.

Governor asks for meetings

The governor is asking educators and citizens in the state to hold local meetings to voice their opinions on two questions.

1. "What is it that keeps you from providing the best possible learning opportunities for your assigned area?"
2. "What do you need to reduce the dropout rate and better prepare your students for the highly competitive year 2000 workforce?"

Legion meets

The Heppner American Legion and Auxiliary met Monday evening, Sept. 18 at the Legion Hall. A potluck dinner began the new year and plans were made for the District 6 meeting that will be held in Heppner Sept. 23 at 6 p.m. At 4 p.m. a light lunch and refreshments will be served for a small fee. All members are urged to attend. Plans are also underway for the annual hunters breakfast that will be held Sept. 29 at the Legion Hall. Anyone able to help is asked to contact Rita Hedman.

RHS volleyball team win over Cardinals

By Mikka Evans
Riverside varsity squad started their season off right with a tough win against the Ione Cardinals in Ione Thursday night. Riverside won the match in two games with the final 15-10 and 17-15. In the first game Riverside glided through with good serving by Trina Sayles and Kassie Westmoreland who finished the game for the Pirates.

Ione put up a tough fight with Riverside during the second game, tying it 15-15, but the Pirates stuck it out until the end to win 17-15. When asked how she felt her team played, coach Barton said, "I was very proud of my girls, both for individual play and as a team. They came back, being down 12-6 and 10-14. That took a lot of mental toughness."

There will be a re-organizational meeting for the South Morrow County 4-H horse program Thursday, September 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the fairgrounds. Parents of interested participants are asked to attend to coordinate

Grange members judge notebooks

By Delpha Jones
Dorris Ried, GWA State chairman of the Oregon State Grange, Delta Johnson, county deputy for Hood River, Wasco and Sherman Counties, Delpha Jones Wheatland Pomona deputy and Dot Halvorsen, Pomona Chairman of the GWA, met at the Ione Grange Hall on Monday morning where they judged the subordinate and Pomona notebooks of the GWA. There were twenty-one books, all interesting, and the judges had a hard job picking the winners. All showed originality and imagination in their preparation. The first place winners will go to National Grange where they will be judged. Ralland Johnson accompanied his wife to Ione, and all enjoyed lunch together.
