Heppner Ponies lose one, win one

Pony running back (42) gains yardage against Lone Thursday.

By Rick Koffler

The Heppner Ponies started their season with a loss to Columbia on Sept. 14, but then came back to defeat Lone. Below are some details from the games.

Columbia 13 Heppner 6

The Ponies scored first with a touchdown in the first quarter to go up 6-0. Columbia then came back and scored to take the lead 7-6 at the half. In the second half Columbia scored once again to make the score 13-6. Heppner couldn't catch back up and so the final score was Columbia 13, Heppner 6.

Heppner 47 Lone 28

Heppner's second game had a totally different outcome. The Ponies played Lone Cardinals. The Ponies started off with a bang scoring the first 20 points. Lone then scored making it 20-7. Heppner then pulled away going in the locker room at half tie with a 34-7 lead. Heppner then proceeded to score the first time they got the ball in the cond half making it 41-7. Lone started to come back, but Heppner struck again with a kickoff return. The final score was Heppner 47, Lone 28.

Heppner's next game will be Thursday, September 28 in Stanfield. The next home game will be October 5 against Pilot Rock.
