

United Way distributes produce

Morrow County United Way board members (left to right) Merri Reamer, Judy Eckman, Judy Osmin and Cathi Bauska, bag potatoes for distribution to local organizations in the county.

The pickup load of potatoes donated to the United Way by Paul Taylor of Lexington was divided up among the Heppner Day Care center and St. Patrick's Senior Center in Heppner and several locations in the north end of the county. This bulk food donation marks the second in recent months as apples were donated to the Heppner Day Care by Jerry Anderson of Irrigon through the Morrow County United Way in August.

Parenting workshop planned by Extension

Parents can choose from 30 different workshops at the Practical Parenting Workshop to be held at Benson High School, 546 N.E. 12th, Portland, Saturday, Nov. 4. Class topics include "Self Esteem for your Child," "Over Scheduled Families," "Single Parents," "Step Parenting," "Teaching Children responsibility," "The Influence of TV," and many others, according to Dawn C. Hawkins, Extension home economist.

Sponsored by the Oregon Home Economics Association and the Oregon State University Extension Service, the workshop is designed for parents of children from birth to age ten. Parents may take up to five classes at the events which will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. There will also be a resource fair.

Pre-registration is $6 with an optional catered box lunch for $4. The pre-registration deadline is October 21. Registration at the door will cost $15. Registration forms may be picked up at the Morrow County Extension Office, Pendleton, or by calling 676-9642. Teen parents may register for free, however the box lunch is still $4.

Garden Bugs sponsor contest

The Lexington Garden Bugs will be sponsoring a pumpkin decorating contest for all Lexington residents for Halloween. Pumpkins may be decorated or carved, but must be taken to the V & G Tavern in Lexington by Oct. 25. Pumpkins will be displayed at the V & G until Halloween and boxes will be available for the public to cast votes for their favorite jack-o-lantern until 4 p.m. on Halloween.

Categories will be 1-16 years and 16 years to adult. First second and third prizes will be awarded for both categories.

Ione Cardinals down Helix

By Melissa Rowell

On Wednesday, October 10, the Ione Lady Cardinals downed the Helix Grizzlies, 15-9, 15-4.

Mary Cupps and Amy Wagenblast each had one ace serve in the first game to set the pace. Nancy Morter also helped set the pace by serving six straight points in a row.

In the second game, Jo Cupps served six points and had an ace serve to finish off the Grizzlies.

Homecoming week at Heppner High

These 'Nerds' were found hanging around Heppner High School Tuesday afternoon. There's some strange things going on up there, not quite sure who's in charge these days but anything goes during Homecoming Week--almost.

Heppner Ponies 3-2 record

Kevin Payne (24) gains some yardage for the Heppner Ponies. By Rick Koffler

The Heppner Ponies played their fourth and fifth games October 4 and 11. The Ponies played Pilot Rock who did not have a team last year.

The Ponies badly needed a win after losing 12-7 to Stanfield. Heppner came out ready to play, going after Pilot Rock all over the field. Heppner got to Pilot Rock early, going into the locker room at halftime with a 21-0 lead. Heppner scored one more time before putting the second string in to play the rest of the game.

Heppner won the game 28-0. Heppner is now 2-2.

The Heppner Ponies, undefeated

playing eight-man football, kept it that way by beating Echo 26-7. Heppner scored first on two long runs, going up 12-0. Echo then scored on a Heppner let-down to make the score 12-7. Heppner struck one more time before halftime to make the score at half 19-7. Heppner scored one more time in the second half and the game ended with the score Heppner, 26, Echo 7. Heppner is finally on the winning side with a record of 3-2.

Heppner's biggest game of the year will be Thursday Oct. 19 against Umatilla. Kickoff for that game will be at 3 p.m. in Umatilla.

Tooth talk

Gilliam, Waterland win putting contest

Officials of the Fred Meyer Challenge Golf Tournament announced Howard Gilliam and George Waterland as the local winners of the Putt for Charity putting contest.

The Fred Meyer Challenge attracts golf greats and corporate executives from around the world. The Putt for Charity is a featured event of the Fred Meyer Challenge. Participants who sink a putt are eligible for one of fifty prizes provided by the Fred Meyer Challenge.

The event has been sponsored the past four years by Metropolitan Life, and is staffed by volunteers of Metropolitan Family Service, a non-profit charitable organization, serving families in Portland.

Howard Gilliam and George Waterland are two out of only fifty winners, ranging anywhere from Alaska to Florida, who won the Putt for Charity.

The Adventures of Grazelda & Clem

(After Hours)
5:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m.

Grazelda chirped, "Hey Clem, what are all them folks runnin down to Miller's Mini-Mart & Chevron for?"

Clem explained, "Them folks are signing up for a pinata full of candy. They're gonna draw the winner out of the hat on the 30th of Oct. and you can sign up every day."

Grazelda squealed, "Gee Clem that's great. By the way, what's a pinata?"

Clem pondered, "I don't know love, but who cares as long as it's full of candy!"
