

Weddings

Green-Harrison

Kirsten Marie Green, Heppner, and Travis Lee Harrison, Lexington, were married in a double-ring ceremony on August 12, 1989, at the Heppner United Methodist Church. The Reverend Gerry Etchison officiated.

Kirsten is the daughter of Cliff and Cindy Green, Heppner and Travis is the son of Sharon and Robert Harrison, Lexington.

Kirsten, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a cathedral train. The bodice was covered with a hand-embroidered applique and pearls and sequins. The train was covered with a hand-embroidered applique and crystal organza ruffles. The veil, a crown, headpiece, hand finger veiling trimmed with white pearls and sequins. The bouquet was a cascade of pink roses, white carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Jennifer Rill of Washington, D.C., a friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kim Sager, Lynchburg, Va., a friend of the bride, and Tiffany Harrison, Lexington, sister of the groom.

Kevin Hughes, Heppner, friend of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Trent Harrison, Forest Grove, brother of the groom; David Green, Heppner, brother of the bride; and Todd Harrison, Richland, Wa., brother of the groom.

Niki Sweeney, Heppner, cousin of the groom, and Josie Green, Prineville, cousin of the bride, were candlelighters. Brooke Sweeney, Heppner, cousin of the groom, was flower girl. Andy Green, Prineville, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

A reception was held at the St. Patrick's Catholic Church parish hall in Heppner and an informal barbecue was held at the home of the groom's parents.

After a wedding trip to Coeur d'Alene, Id., the couple is at home in Lexington.

Kirsten is a graduate of Heppner High School and attended Blue Mountain Community College. She is employed with VanMarter and Kahl Insurance in Heppner. The groom, also a Heppner High School graduate, attended Blue Mountain Community College. He is employed with Robert Harrison.

Berryman — McElligott

LaDonn Berryman and Mathew McElligott were married August 26, 1989, at the Mountain View Methodist Church at Butte, Mont. The Reverend Robert Craver and Father Gregory Burke officiated.

Bill Shine, Boseman, Mt., friend of the groom was best man. Groomsmen were Jerome Chrliecek, Pullman, Wa., Lee Ohlinger, Great Falls, Mt., and Brett Sherer, Tigard, friends of the groom.

Ushers were Eric Burdette, Boseman, and Vince McElligott, Washington, D.C. Bridget McElligott, Lone, handled the guest book.

After a reception, held at the Serbian Hall at Butte, the couple left for a wedding trip to Calgary and Edmonton, Canada. The bride has a bachelor of science degree from Montana State University. She is employed with Farmers Home Administration at Polson, Mt. The groom has a bachelor of science degree in agricultural business from Montana State University and is employed as a territory manager with Purina Mills.

Engagements

Walchli — Currin

Patrick and Sherry Walchli, Hermiston, announced the engagement of their daughter, Judy Jean, to Michael George Currin, the son of Ron and Judy Currin, Heppner.

A Nov. 4 wedding is planned at 5 p.m. at the Assembly of God Church in Hermiston.

Judy is a 1989 graduate of Hermiston High School. Michael graduated from Heppner High in 1983. He graduated from Boise State in 1989 with a degree in history.

HCMF members to to Philippines

Pastor Lynda Crane, Ruby Steers and Dorothy Maudlin, all of the Heppner Christian Missionary Fellowship will leave for Dumaguete, The Philippines Nov. 4. While in the Philippines, the three will attend pastor seminars and crusades. They will return Nov. 21.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

Last week and this week are full ones for the center. The "55 Alive" driving class was last Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, along with the regular dinner on Wednesday. Seniors were dismayed at Dot Halvorsen's illness but were thankful that she could be evacuated to St. Vincent's in Portland and is now recovering from surgery.

Saturday afternoon following the memorial service for Bert Corbin, family and friends gathered in the dining room for dinner and fellowship.

The Heppner Senior Dollaride car came into service last Tuesday and Thursday. Those wishing rides on Tuesday call 676-5089 and on Thursday 676-9435. The ride is to any destination in or near Heppner and back. Suggested donation is $1. A different bus has been lent by the State Transit Division in Salem until the new bus comes next spring. This blue 21-passenger with a lift and spots for two wheel chairs comes from Clatsop-Tillamook. You'll see "Seniors on the move". On Oct. 23-25 jack-o-lanterns from children kindergarten through fourth grade were entered in a contest sponsored by the Merchants' committee. These will be displayed in the foyer of the center. Thursday Sr. judges committee will announce the winners.

Thursday and Friday will be another driving class. This is full but those interested should call Bill Cox, 676-9497.

Beginning this week the office will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. The number is 676-9030. The chairman for organizing the office staff is Rachel Harnett. Anyone wishing to volunteer time should call her at 676-9434. A new committee, the activities committee has been meeting often lately to plan for the coming year. Activities include a potluck and game night the second Sunday evening of each month, a food sale each month, exercise classes for seniors, card parties, craft groups, and maybe special dinners and suppers among other things. Members of this committee are Harriet Batty, Sue Vinson, Daisy Collins, Millie Evans, Marilyn Bergstrom, Helen Gilliam, Theta Lowe and Jane Rawlins.

Next week: Wednesday dinner at noon. Menu: spaghetti with meat sauce, mixed vegetables, chilled pears, French bread and peach cobbler.

At 1 p.m. the meeting of the Nutrition Site Committee will be held in the office.

Thursday, Nov. 2 at 1 p.m. will be the first meeting of the quilting group. This is for anyone interested in quilts and quilting, all sizes and shapes. "Oldsters are not so oldsters" according to Theta Lowe, chairman, and her assistant, Helen Gilliam. Their plan at first will be to get acquainted and make small wall hangings, Christmas stockings and ornaments with plans for some larger projects to start by the New Year. Contact Theta if you have questions, 676-9496 or call the center 676-9030.

The Activities Committee indicates a need for card tables, new or used.
