Riverside Pirates Victorious

By Mikka Evans

The Riverside Pirates continue to be victorious by beating the Weston-McEwen Tiger-Scots at the district play-offs Saturday night. The Pirates took on the Tiger-Scots in Wahtonka to take the district title. Riverside won the match in three games, 15-4, 13-15, 15-10.

The Pirates continued their consistent team serving, by serving 93 percent. Leading the Pirates from behind the line were Rochelle Neal, who served 13-13, Wendy Dawson who served 17-18 and Kassie Westmoreland, who served 15-16.

The Pirates had to make a lot of changes the second game with starting player, April Morgan, out with a hurt ankle. Back-row player Marty Suter helped the team recover their loss, by getting three blocks in the front row. Sherri Lake also helped out with good all-around play.

The Pirates stayed tough at the net with Trina Sayles getting 19 blocks, 11 kills and going 21-22 attacks with eight kills. Good setting by Lisa Short and Neal helped aid Sayles in her tough offense.

"Once again we had a good team effort," comments coach Barton. "We were really happy we won. Now, we hope we can beat Grant Union. We have lost to them twice, but hope that things will be different this time."

Starting for the Pirates were April Morgan, Westmoreland, Lake, Sayles, Suter and Short. Replacing Morgan the second game was Joy Hellberg.

Riverside will take on Grant Union Saturday, Nov. 4 at Riverside High School. The time will be announced because of the District B tournament also scheduled at Riverside at 2 p.m.

Weddings

Haggard — Hughes

Angilina Marie Haggard and William Kevin Hughes, both of Heppner, were married July 8 at the United Methodist Church, Medford. Pastor Ron Crandell performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dan and Gail Haggard of Talent. Hughes' parents are Merlin and Claudia Hughes of Heppner.

Soloist was Micheale Krake, Bend. The maid of honor was Deanna Haggard, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Kimberly Hughes, sister of the groom, Heppner; Gina Fox, cousin of the bride, Phoenix; Lietha Ray, Ashland; and Rileen Haugen, Talent.

Natalie Conklin, California, was flowergirl and Spencer Smith, cousin of the groom, Visalia, California, was ringbearer.

Best man was Travis Harrison, Lexington. Groomsmen were Danny Ray Haggard, brother of the bride, Talent; Trent Harrison, Lexington; Loren Hayes, Corvallis; and Gary Bedell, Medford.

Clyde Brock, Central Point, and Reid Brumble, Ashland were ushers. Candlelighters were Devin Coe, cousin of the groom, Pendleton; and Jimmy Baughman, Ashland. Bonnie Eckley, Pendleton was at the guest book.

The bride wore a floor length organza gown with elaborate hand beading on the satin bodice, basque waist, rounded V-neckline and short puffed sleeves, enhanced by hand beading of dropped pearls and crystal sequins. The floor length skirt was decorated with silk Schiffali embroidered lace applique in a reverse effect. Her semi cathedral train featured scallops of organza ruffles with silk Schiffali embroidered lace.

Nendels, Medford, was the site of the reception, a poolside buffet and dance hosted by the bride's parents. June Brock, Medford, cut the cake.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the Jacksonville Inn and hosted by the parents of the groom.

The bride is a 1987 Phoenix High School graduate and the groom graduated from Heppner High School in 1986. Both are Blue Mountain Community College graduates in AG Production and are employed by W.E. Hughes & Sons, Heppner.

After a wedding trip to Disneyland and San Diego, the bride and groom are residing on the Hughes ranch, Heppner.
