Couple honored at reception

Friends of John and Kristin Nelson Graham were invited to an open house reception Friday, Nov. 24 at the home of her mother Jean Nelson on Baseline Road. John and Kristin were married Aug. 7 in Salem.

John's parents Lynn and Lisa Mary Graham, of Portland were special guests. Many local and out-of-town friends enjoyed visiting during the afternoon.

At the buffet table Birdine Tulli served punch, Debbie Warren served cake and Lisa Mary Graham served coffee. At the time of leaving each guest received a weathergram, done in calligraphy by Kristin, as a thank you from John and Kristin.

Weddings

O'Leary - Morter

Anne Cecile O'Leary of Beaverton and Ralph Lee Morter, Ione, were married Sept. 23 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Lakeview, Ore. the Rev. Austin Cribbin officiated.

Anne is the daughter of Jeremiah and Kathleen O'Leary, Paisley. Ralph is the son of Perry and Kathy Morter of Ione.

The bride made her own gown, assisted by Terry McElligott. The gown had a dropped V-waist, Queen Anne neckline and long fitted sleeves. The bodice was made of de-lustered satin with a rose-patterned lace overlay, highlighted with pearls and sequins. The full skirt had a chapel train. The veil, also made by the bride, was a fingertip length simple cap veil, highlighted with lace and pearls. Maid of honor was the brides sister Kathryn O'Leary.

Bridesmaids were Julie O'Leary, Portland, sister of the bride, and Martha McElligott, Beaverton, cousin of the bride. They wore old-fashioned tea-length dresses in blue, lavender and floral print, accented with a white laced-edged collar. Flower girl was Julie Morter, niece of the groom. Sue Lynch was organist. Terry McElligott was soloist.

Best man was Jerry McElligott, Ione, friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Roger Morter, brother of the groom, and Richard Ladd, friend of the groom. They were attired in classic black tuxedos. Ushers were Tom and Chris O'Leary.

A reception was held at the Elks Lodge in Lakeview. Assisting at the reception were Beverly Morter and Mary Fox, aunts of the groom, and Marie O'Leary, Patti O'Leary, Maryann McElligott, Loa McElligott and Eunice McElligott, aunts of the bride. Karmen O'Leary and Carla Morter assisted with the guest book and Linda Morter and Nancy Morter assisted with the guest table.

Special out-of-town guests were Bud and Mary Fox, aunt and uncle of the groom from Medford, New Jersey.

The bride attended Paisley High School, Lane Community College and Eastern Oregon State College where she majored in business administration. She is employed at Safeway stores. The groom attended Ione High School and BMCC where he majored in production agriculture. He is a self-employed wheat farmer.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon Coast the couple is at home in Ione.
