

Pirates rip Arlington Grange has Christmas party

By Marty Suter

Lexington Grange met on Monday, Dec. 18 for their regular meeting and Christmas party. A potluck dinner was enjoyed at 6:30 after which a program was enjoyed by those present.

Joyce Hughes and her Sunday school classes sang some Christmas music, accompanied by Betty Marquardt. Following this Santa appeared and all enjoyed sacks of candy and candy canes.

The meeting was called to order by the Master Lyle Peck. During the Good of the Order line of business, the County Deputy, Delpha Jones presented secretary Jean Nelson with a carnation, and read a poem concerning secretaries and their various jobs. She has done this for the granges in Wheatland Pomona District this past year.

At the closing of the meeting she presented Lyle with his past master's pin in the absence of the newly installed master, Joe Yocom.

It was announced that Willows Grange will have a degree day on Jan. 7 starting at 2 p.m. Dinner will be potluck salads and desserts and will be served at 4 p.m. It is hoped that all those granges who have had only the obligation ceremony will make an effort to attend to see the degree work.

The Pendleton Frosh stomped Riverside Frosh, 46-27, December 19 in Pendleton.

"Pendleton had 12 girls that could've started for our team," Riverside coach Dan Daltoso said. The Pirates kept with the Bucks only during the second quarter. "We didn't come out and play like we wanted to win. The girls were intimidated and unmotivated from the beginning of the game."

Pendleton had eleven girls that scored for them, while Riverside had only five.

The Frosh handed their coach an early Christmas present Thursday with a 42-34 victory over the Mac-Hi Pioneers.

"We made our mistakes. (This time) our effort was great," Daltoso said.

"It's the best game by far this year. The whole team hustled and played well," said Daltoso.

Amy Daulton scored 13 points, Mandy Marchek nine, Laura Reyes and Dorothy Siner seven points each to lead Riverside.

Rosa Felix paced Mac-Hi with 16 points.

Riverside Frosh ended their season 3-2.
