

U.M. church to dedicate hymnals

The Heppner United Methodist Church will have a dedication ceremony for their new hymnals this Sunday, January 21, during the 10:30 a.m. worship service. The worship service will be followed by a potluck lunch and the monthly administrative council meeting.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

This Friday, in recognition of the 'Town and Country' celebration, the center is offering two events. At 9 a.m. a baked food sale will feature breads, rolls, pies, cakes and cookies. With years of experience in the kitchen, you'll find seniors are mighty good cooks. From 2 to 4 p.m. that afternoon will be an informal open house coffee hour.

Helen Gilliam, chairman of the second-Sunday potlucks, reports that the potluck last Sunday evening was "enjoyed by all."

January 8 "Quilters and Company" began putting together their first quilt. Planned as a part of the upcoming St. Patrick's celebration, the "Irish Chain" pattern is a combination of plain green and white fabric and a print of green shamrocks on a white background. Theta Lowe is assisting the group in using the "strip-quilt" construction. This group meets every Monday at 1 p.m. in the dining room.

This Thursday at 10 a.m. the Senior Center Board Finance Committee meets in the office.

Next week: Wednesday noon dinner menu: tuna-rice casserole with cheese sauce, stewed tomatoes, green beans, creamy coleslaw, mixed fruit cup, bran muffins and cookies. The Christian Church ladies will be helping us with this.

At 1 p.m. an important meeting of the Activities Committee will be in the office.

Some early February dates seniors and others may want to mark on their calendars are: Bingo presented by the Lone Lions Club Sunday, Feb. 4, at 4 p.m. and on Feb. 5 important information on the changes of Medicaid will be given by speakers from Pendleton at 10 a.m.

Recent additions to center furnishings include two new freezers by the Nutrition Site Committee, a kitchen cart donated by the Cow Cutters, a filing cabinet for the office and a coat rack provided through a recent United Way grant.

Reminder to all: the office is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. week days, 676-9030. The volunteer staff of resident and community seniors are happy to answer questions and refer messages, including calls for the services of the Area Agency on Aging for which Merri Reamer is the Morrow County specialist. It comes to the attention of the center that many here in the Heppner area are not familiar with some of these programs. The Wednesday meal, including home-delivered meals that day, is only one of over a dozen services available to seniors over 60 and to the handicapped or disabled. Watch this bulletin board for further information.

The Dollaride is still available. Some trips to Hermiston or Pendleton may be scheduled through special arrangements.

Lexington grange meets

By Delpha Jones

Lexington Grange met for their regular meeting on Monday, Jan. 15. This being the yearly "Men's Night," the men cooked and served a delicious supper of pancakes, ham, sausage and eggs. Following the meeting Master Joe Yocom opened for the business. A short history of the census was given by the lecturer. This is the time for the 1990 census and households will be receiving these reports in the mail. The census started in the late 1700's and had only six questions to answer. The information from these reports is used to determine the needs of many projects such as road maintenance, housing, help for the needy, senior citizens needs. The group discussed the raise in support to past U.S. presidents, passed by the Senate and ready for the president's signature. A resolution against the raise will be sent to the senators, representatives and president. The master's duties were read, followed by the master's creed. Work is planned to replace the cornerstone taken out several years back.

The county deputy reported on the recent conference in Portland. There were 66 deputies and Pomona masters present. Goals of more members, better attendance, more publicity and interest in national, state and county affairs were stressed as well as the new obligation ceremony.

Visitors were Don and Martha Baker from Greenfield Grange. Pomona will be Sat., Jan. 27, at Willows Grange in Ione.
