

Lexington News

By Delpha Jones

--The benefit for Carol Ann Rea, sponsored by the Holly Rebekah Lodge at the Senior Center in Heppner was well attended. The evening was spent in playing bingo and enjoying pie and coffee. The Lodge greatly appreciated the interest the community has shown in the benefit.

--Frances Murty is a patient in Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner.

--Maynard Seefeldt, who has been a patient at Good Shepherd Community hospital has been moved to the Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home.

--The recent card party at the Rebekah Hall in Lexington was well attended with women's high won by Dorothy Burcham and second high-Jean Nelson; mens high-John Tellechea and second high-Robert Taylor. Traveling went to Tom Wilson and Delpha Jones. The next party is scheduled for Sat. March 3, at the hall with prizes and refreshments.

--Dot and Lewis Halvorsen and Cecil and Delpha Jones recently motored to Spray where they officiated in the official obligation ceremony for six new members of that Grange. Dot did the obligation ceremony and county deputy Delpha officiated the installation of 1990 officers. A lovely dinner was served.

--Cecil and Delpha Jones attended the Greenfield Grange at Boardman last week. Welcomed and introduced were Sharon Mahan of Ontario, the Eastern Oregon State deputy and her husband, Red, and Delpha Jones, Wheatfield Pomona District deputy and husband Cecil. Sharon spoke on the obligation ceremony now being used, with the understanding that any member taking part in this must see the regular initiation ceremony within 12 months. She spoke of the recent conferences and the state session which will be in Ontario in June. Delpha spoke of the recent deputy school in Portland and the needs of the granges. Members should make an effort to attend the Pomona Grange meetings which meet once a quarter. A lovely dinner was enjoyed including a short program of group singing. The next Pomona meeting will be in April in Spray.

--Janie Jones, daughter of Debra Jones, and granddaughter of Hilda and Joe Yocom, is a patient in a hospital in Spokane suffering from a broken leg which required surgery.

--Richard and Fran Peck were in Portland last week on business and also for a visit with Fran's sisters.

--Three Links Club met at the home of Dorothy Burcham last week. An election of officers was held with Dorothy Burcham as chairman and Joyce Buchanan, secretary. Plans were made for the group to make a quilt spread top of embroidery. This will take some time to complete but should be a lovely quilt.

Door prize was won by Annetta Padberg.

--Visitors at the Faye Ruhl home recently have been Lorie and Joshua Ross and Tracie Ruhl and Sam Pollack of Hermiston.

--Bill and Rena Marquardt were recent Portland visitors and while there visited their daughters Charma and Norita.

--Charlene Whitney, daughter of Cecil and Delpha Jones and Max Akers, of Portland; Vicki Bowen and Katie and Bo of Goldendale, WA.; Valda Smith and daughter Delpha Jo, and Danny Smith, Hermiston, Jo and George Irvin of Irri- rigan and Kenneth Jones were callers at the Jones home over Saturday where they hosted a buffet lunch for Cecil Jones on his birthday. About 14 visitors enjoyed lunch and visiting for the afternoon.

--Norman Jenkins, who recently moved to Lexington, is now employed at St. Pat's Senior Center in Heppner. He is the brother of Lois Allyn and lived in the Allyn's trailer before moving to Heppner.

--Lexington Grange met on Monday evening for the regular meeting with the Master Joe Yocom in the chair. Preceding the business meeting a bountiful potluck dinner was served with the hosts, Geri and Carl Martin and Kathy and Ned Clark. At the dinner the dessert recipe drawn at last meeting by Bob Taylor was served to each member. The number drawn at this time went to Virginia Peck and the recipe drawn will be made and served by her at the next meeting. The program was a recording of a panel discussion at the Oregon Wheat League meeting last spring, with Nancy O'Brien, chairman of the Coalition for Alternatives to Pesticides. The other speaker was Clinton Redear, past Wheat League president and farmer. The pros and cons on the issue were quite interesting. A reading "Playmate," was read by Virginia Peck and an article about an early day clam feed at the Rhea Creek Grange printed in the Gazette was read. Installed as master at that meeting was Hannah Anderson. An interesting item was that due to the increase in dues, Rhea Creek would have to raise dues to $3. At that time that Grange received a pennant from the state for having 100 percent of the dues paid for 10 years. The business meeting concerned the date for the first four degrees to be given candidates and the Pomona Degree day. A committee to work on a benefit for Carol Ann Palmer was appointed and it was suggested a potluck dinner and card party with a donation fee be held. Plans will be discussed at a later date. The Memorial Day picnic discussed and a committee was appointed to work on this to see if it is feasible for the Grange to take in such an undertaking. The Neighborhood Center was discus-ed and a resolution was presented for approval to be sent to the Morrow County Court. Cards were sent to ill members and friends. The charter was draped for Adrian Bechdoit with music provided by Frances Smouse, and Hilda Yocom and Mildred Wright taking the parts of Chaplain and Ceres. Pomona will be at Spray in April. The pancake supper provided by All Saint's Episcopal Church for Feb. 27 was announced. The meeting was adjourned.

Pirates lose to Vikings

By Marty Suter

The conference-leading Pirates lost their first game of the year to the Umatilla Vikings, 72-68.

Umatilla trailed by nine at the half and needed to get back into the game.

Despite cold shooting, Scott Timms led the Pirates with 24. Umatilla's Jason Adams also had 24 points.

Rusty Green, Umatilla's three-point shooter, had 18 points and Mike Tallman chipped in 17 for the Pirates.
