

City kids experience rural life

Twenty-five Centennial Middle School students in Gresham are visiting Heppner this week as part of an exchange program between Centennial and Heppner Middle School.

Twenty-five Heppner eighth graders are spending the week in Gresham with host families there.

On the calendar for Centennial students this week are Monday, April 23—a stockman's tour to Ruggs with stops at Mark and Tami Rietmann's, Ken and Judy Wright's and Jim and Carlene West's ranches and dinner at the Episcopal Church put on by the CattleWomen; Tuesday-Wheat League tour of the Lyle Peck ranch; Wednesday-tour of Hardman ghost town with history of the area by Carl McDaniel and Opal Cook, timber presentation in forest with U.S. Forest Service staff and hot dog roast at Anson Wright Park; Thursday-tour of Kinzua, Willow Creek Dam and Lake and Morrow County Museum and one room school, by Marsha Sweick; Friday-seventh and eighth grade dance from 7:30 to 10 p.m. in the multi-purpose room; Saturday-tour of North Morrow County, leave for home about 11 a.m. Heppner students will return around 7 p.m. that day.

Centennial students are accompanied by Centennial Science, health and PE teacher Vern Olson.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

By Jane Rawlins

Last Saturday Dot Halvorsen and co-pilot Lewis drove our senior bus to Yakima to take friends to the Justine Weatherford-Garland Benintendi wedding at their home in Suntower. Helen Currin, Marian Brosnan, Mary Goheen, Eleanor Gonty, Vern Batty, Irene Swanson, Janice Martin and Jane Rawlins all reported an enjoyable day. The bus is available for out-of-town trips. Contact Dot, 422-7143 for details.

Merri Reamer, our AAA advisor will not be here on Wednesday this week or next week due to special training meetings. However, messages to her may be relayed through our office, 676-9030.

This week: Friday at 9 a.m. in the front room is our monthly food sale. Prospective buyers can expect our usual home-baked goodies and free coffee and chatting.

Next week: Monday Quilters meet from 1 to 4 p.m.; BMCC Knitting Class at 7:30 and the Housing Authority at 7 p.m.

Wednesday: monthly free blood pressure check before the noon dinner. The menu: sweet and sour pork with rice, brussels sprouts, cinnamon applesauce, hot biscuits and plum cobbler. Assisting with serving will be ladies from the Episcopal Church. Nutrition Site Committee meets in the office at 1 p.m.

Friday: representatives from our center will attend the intergenerational conference, "Oregon Generations Together," in Portland, looking forward to developing some senior volunteer activities with kids here.

Saturday: the wedding reception of Sophie Struthers and Darrel Smith will be in our dining room.

The Dollaride Car has gone to both Hermiston and Pendleton recently. We still need more volunteer drivers. Also, bookshelves for our library are not up because we still need a carpenter.

Lexington Grange meets

By Delpha Jones

Lexington Grange met on Monday evening for their regular evening with the Master Joe Yocom presiding. The evening started with a potluck dinner with Jean and Chuck Nelson and Ken and Frances Smouse hosts. The program which started at 7:30 p.m. was a reading "A Bath in the Old Gavanized Tub," and slides and narration by Bob Krein on the wild turkey and its habitat, especially in Morrow County. This was most interesting and educational, as it was wild turkey season.

A business meeting was held with Clarence Buchanan, Billie June Owen and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Temple voted as members. The initiation will be held for these candidates on May 21 at the regular meeting.

The Wheat League dinner scheduled for Friday, April 27, was discussed with Virginia Peck as chairman. A work day was planned to install the recently purchased electric stove and a new hot water heater.

Pomona Grange will meet at Spray on April 28 starting with coffee at 10 a.m. A program and cake walk will follow the dinner at noon.

Visitors were Dot and Lewis Halvorsen, overseer and steward of Pomona. An appointment of a G.W.A. chairman was made by the master with Delpha Jones and Hilda Yocom working as co-chairman for the year 1990. State Grange will be here soon and those planning on entering contests should be getting the articles ready.

Checks were sent to "Dogs for the Deaf" and the deaf project and the G.W.A. scholarship.

The Holly Rebekah Lodge entertained 24 ladies from the neighboring PNG clubs at the hall on Saturday noon with a luncheon and an afternoon of bingo. The tables were lovely with small crocheted hats as gifts for each member present and potted pansies which were given as prizes. There were members present from Pauline, Integrity, Bunchgrass and Holly lodges.
