Rowell receives Oregonian scholarship

A total of $60,500 in new college scholarships has been awarded to 30 high school students from Oregon and Vancouver, Washington, by the Oregonian Publishing Company of Portland. Scholarship winners include Melissa Rowell, Lexington, of Ione High School.

The purpose of the scholarship is to provide college assistance to high achieving graduating seniors who might otherwise be unable to continue their education, said an Oregon Publishing Co. news release. Amounts vary per student.

Eleven successful applicants are from the Portland area, three from greater metro Portland, one from Clark County, Wa., four from Willamette Valley schools, three from southern Oregon, two from the Oregon coast, one from Central Oregon and five from eastern Oregon.

Regional track meet upcoming

State Games of Oregon will be holding their third annual Eastern Regional Track and Field meet June 16 in LaGrande.

All youth age groups, 10 and under, 11-12 and 13-14 year old boys and girls are invited to participate as well as those in the 15 and older men's and women's age groups.

The meet will be run by TAC-sanctioned rules. This will enable qualification for other Junior Olympic meets held throughout Oregon. TAC-sanctioned meets specify age to be determined by age as of December 31, 1990.

Ribbons will be awarded for first, second and third places with the top three in each event advancing on to the state finals held July 7 and 8 at Mt. Hood Community College in Gresham.

Entry deadline for the LaGrande meet is June 8. A practice meet for those 14 and under is scheduled for June 7 at Eastern Oregon State College.

For more information contact Carol Ritter or Susie Hisler.

Lindsay on Honor Roll

Theresa M. Lindsay, daughter of Larry and Corrine Lindsay, Lexington, is listed on the spring 1990 honor roll at the University of Portland.

Lindsay is a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences.

The University of Portland is an independently governed, residential, four-year Catholic university offering a curriculum of arts, sciences, humanities and professional programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Heppner News

Family guests at the home of Mildred Padberg on Memorial Day were her son, Edwin Tucker, Salem; sister Nora Myers, The Dalles and Elsie Caldera, Coos Bay. They visited cemeteries at Fossil, Condon, Heppner, Spray and Mayville. Other guests were Pat Morin, Myrtle Point; Fairy Mae Robinson, Powers, Ore.; Elvira Myers, The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Myers, Condon; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cecil, Spray.

After the meeting was adjourned, those members present played a game of basketball for fun.

Two-Trackers
The Two-Trackers English riding program will begin this Sunday, June 3, at 3 p.m. at the Kirk Robinson Feedlot about two miles past the fairgrounds.

This will be a progressive program with each lesson building upon the previous one. Anyone interested is urged to attend each week.

4-H enrollment up

The 1989-89 4-H club enrollment in Morrow County is up just a slight amount from last year. Members and leaders total about 315. Last year the total was around 304. "4-H has enjoyed a very good year with some outstanding new activities," said Bill Broderick, extension agent. This year a Tri-County leaders forum was held with Gilliam and Wheeler counties. There was also a Tri-County Speak Easy Day, a workshop on giving 4-H presentations. Morrow County also had, as a first this year, a livestock judging clinic. These events were attended by over 155 members, leaders and parents.

The last date for enrollment in the 4-H program is June 1. Youth can enroll after that date to take advantage of club experience but any members enrolling after June 1 will not be eligible for county or state fair participation. If you plan on enrolling in 4-H please do so before June 1.

Justice Court Report

The Justice Court office at the courthouse annex building in Heppner reports handling the following business during the past week:

renewable, will be honored Wednesday, August 8, at a banquet at Portland's Hilton Hotel. The Hon. Mark O. Hatfield, U.S. Senator from Oregon will be featured speaker.

Baptist church celebrates Mother's Day

By Delpha Jones

The Baptist Church celebrated Mother's Day with a lovely salad luncheon and program at the church on Thursday, May 10. The tables were decorated with pastel colored table cloths with matching lighted candles in flower rings. Pictures were enjoyed as were several old fashioned quilts and rocking chairs. The welcome and opening were given by Phyllis Anderson. Each person introduced herself and her guests. After the luncheon, Bertha Sager introduced her sister Virginia Woodward, speaker for the evening. She read a poem dedicated to her mother, Bertha Gates, a former Lexington resident; and told of their early life in Idaho. Everyone enjoyed this very much. Games were played, and Mrs. Perez of Ione received a lovely carnation arrangement as the mother of a graduating senior this year. After some visiting the evening closed with a prayer by Mrs. Anderson.

4-H News

Snap Shots
By Annie Hisler, Reporter

On May 9, the Snap Shots Club met for their sixth 4-H meeting at Kate's Pizza.

Heather Ripple led the American Pledge and Colin Anderson the 4-H Pledge.

In old business, Jodi Johnston, Angie Bergstrom and Heather Ripple talked about their April 14 trip to the mountains on a photo outing.

The club then looked through a book belonging to Dr. Temple on "How the Camera Works." It was quite interesting.

New business brought up what our photo entries should be for fair. We need to be working on our photo stories to turn in.

The second week in June was set for a photo outing to Lehman Springs.

After the meeting was adjourned, those members present played a game of basketball for fun.

Two-Trackers
The Two-Trackers English riding program will begin this Sunday, June 3, at 3 p.m. at the Kirk Robinson Feedlot about two miles past the fairgrounds.

This will be a progressive program with each lesson building upon the previous one. Anyone interested is urged to attend each week.

Ione Insights

By Anne Morter, 422-7429

--Jim and Eileen McElligott and family traveled to Reno, Nevada, recently to attend a reunion of Eileen's family.

--Visiting the Perry Morter home for the occasion of the Ione graduation were Andy and Marie Zenner of Genese, ID., Bob and Monica Druffel of Colton, WA., and Clay and Betty Barr of Prosser, WA. Mrs. Zenner and Mrs. Druffel are Kathy Morter's sisters and Mr. Barr is Perry's cousin.

--Patty McElligott has returned home from Carroll College in Helena, Montana to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McElligott. In the fall, she will continue her studies in physical therapy at Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska.

--The family of Charlie Doherty hosted a birthday party in honor of Charlie's 75th birthday over Memorial Day weekend. They reported a good turnout of family and friends for the occasion.

--The Ione Cardinals Little League squad chalked up a win against the Condon Angels on May 21. Coach Jim Swanson reported that 17 hits and a solid team effort resulted in the 18-6 victory for the Cards.

--Terry McElligott of Newberg visited her parents, Jerry and Maryann McElligott over Memorial Day weekend. She also attended the graduation ceremony at Riverside High School where several of her former students graduated.

--Memorial Day weekend was a busy one for Irene Swanson, who spent all three days celebrating her 80th birthday with family and friends. Saturday her children hosted a reception at the Willows Grange Hall and reported a great crowd of neighbors and friends. Beautiful flower arrangements were done by Helen Martin and Jean Lundell. That event was followed by a family dinner where approximately 70 people were served. Her family also had gatherings on Sunday and Monday before leaving for their homes.

Out of town guests included: Father Bear of Athena, Mr. and Mrs. Howard McKellan of Dawson Creek, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Klasson of Sonoma, CA.; Jean Lundell and family of Boise; Norman Swanson and family of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lundell of Eugene; Dennis Swanson and family of Seattle, WA.; and John Swanson and family of Redding, CA. Irene reports that all of her children, 11 of her grandchildren and five of her great-grandchildren were in attendance.

Irene says the whole weekend was quite a thrill, and a "highlight of my life." She also reported receiving nearly 130 birthday cards for her big day.

Holy Baptism, communion planned

On Pentecost Sunday, June 3, at Valby Lutheran Church at 9 a.m. worship service, there will be celebration of the Sacraments of Holy Baptism and Holy Communion. Tyson and Jill Bush, the children of Dennis and Lori Bush will be baptized. Lori Bush is the daughter of Roland and Donna Bergstrom of Valby. Ed Haugsvar, a member of Calvary Lutheran Church of Portland, will be joining by letter of transfer.

At 11 a.m. at Hope Lutheran

Church, there will also be a celebration of Holy Communion. It will also be a time for seven young people--Kara Anstotegui, Tony Becker, Gretchen Berretta, Alyssa Brownfield, Aleida Goodyear, Derek Osmin and Kevin Payne--to be confirmed and receive their first communion. These young people will also be leading various parts of the worship service.

Pastor Hoobing will be preaching on the theme of confirmation in a sermon entitled: "A Letter to Young Christians."

Jr. high elementary academic awards dessert May 31

The annual academic awards assembly and dessert for Heppner Elementary and Junior High Schools will be held Thursday, May 31. Awards will be given in the junior high gym beginning at 7 p.m. Dessert, provided by the Parents' Club will be in the cafeteria after the awards assembly.

Selected students from grades two through eight will be recognized for participation in special academic programs, for performance in skills contests, and at the junior high level, for consistently superior work or improvement in specific areas of the curriculum. The assembly will conclude with recognition of students in the 6th and 8th grades who have met standards for the Presidential Academic Fitness Award.

Friends and families of the students to be recognized are invited to attend.

Enter kids art at Fair

A popular exhibit at the Morrow County Fair each August is the children's art, open class. Ages three to 18 are divided up into three categories with a wide variety of artwork, collections, baked goods, needlework, flowers and garden products which are judged.

Premiums are paid on the top three places and all exhibitors in the younger age category are awarded a ribbon.

"With school dismissing soon, this might be a good time to set aside some special project brought home and encourage your child to enter it in the fair," said Kay Proctor, 3-7 open class art superintendent.
