Obituaries

Amanda Lynn Lightle

Graveside services for Amanda Lynn Lightle were held Thursday, July 12, 1990, at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

Amanda was stillborn at St. Anthony's Hospital in Pendleton on July 5, 1990. She is survived by her parents, Cheryl Ripple and Terry Lightle, sisters, Joanna Welch and Heather Ripple, all of Heppner and a brother, Daniel Lightle, of Hermiston.

Jerome 'Jerry' Franklin Sweeney

Recitation of the rosary for Jerome 'Jerry' Franklin Sweeney was July 12 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner. Mass of Christian Burial was Saturday, July 14 at the church. Vault interment was at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

Mr. Sweeney, 66, of Milwaukie, formerly of Heppner, died Wednesday, July 11, 1990 at the Veterans Hospital in Portland.

He was born July 20, 1923, at Red Lodge, Mont., to Patrick and Mona Hawes Sweeney. He grew up in Montana at Red Lodge and Fort Benton and graduated from high school at Gonzaga Prep School in Spokane.

During World War II, he served with the U.S. Army 102nd Infantry.

On Sept. 20, 1948, he married O.V. 'Tiny' Harris at Butte, Mont.

He attended Gonzaga University, Northwestern University and graduated from Worsham College of Mortuary Science at Des Plaines, Ill. in 1949.

He worked in Butte, Mont., from 1949 until 1955; at Ontario from 1955 until 1960; at Grants Pass from 1960-1964; and purchased Sweeney Mortuary in Heppner, which he operated from 1964 until his retirement in 1983.

He served as mayor of Heppner from 1973 until 1981.

After his retirement, Mr. Sweeney moved to Medford and for the last several months had been at Milwaukie.

He was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner; a life member of the Disabled American Veterans, Butte 6, in Butte, Mont.; a member of BPOE 358 in Heppner; a member of Knights of Columbus Council 1594 in Medford; a member of the Military Order of Purple Heart; APIC (American Political Collectors) and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6412 Camp White Post. Mr. Sweeney still held an Oregon Funeral Directors and Embalmers License. He was a past president of the Oregon State Mortuary and Cemetery Board, appointed by then Gov. Tom McCall.

His wife 'Tiny' died in 1975. Survivors include sons, Michael and Brian, both of Milwaukie, Patrick and Gregory, both of Heppner and Daniel of Hillsboro; a daughter Kathleen Sunseri of Milwaukie, and 12 grandchildren. A sister Patricia McLean also died earlier.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Pioneer Memorial Hospital Fund, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, OR 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner, was in charge of arrangements.

'Marsh' Harrell

The funeral for Andrew 'Marsh' Harrell was Saturday, July 14, in the chapel at Burns Mortuary in Hermiston. Burial was at Desert Lawn Cemetery in Irrigon.

Mr. Harrell, 90, of Irrigon died Tuesday, July 10, 1990, at Good Shepherd Community Hospital in Hermiston.

He was born June 27, 1990 at Colby, Kan.

He came to Oregon in 1941 and had lived at Irrigon for 38 years. He retired from Union Pacific Railroad in 1969 after 30 years service.

He was a 30-year member of the Hermiston Eagles Lodge 2902; a life member of the Umatilla Sage Riders; Union Pacific United Old Timers; and UTU Local 1574.

Survivors include his wife Emma 'Sally' Harrell, at the home; a nephew, Dr. Wayne Gossard of Dallas, Texas, and a niece, Mary Jane Marks of Colorado Springs, Colo.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Oregon Heart Association, 2121 S.W. Broadway, Portland, OR 97201, directly or through Burns Mortuary in Hermiston.

Gladys M. Beckett

Mrs. Beckett, 89, of The Dalles, formerly of Heppner, died Sunday, July 15, 1990, at Mid-Columbia Medical Center in The Dalles.

The funeral for Gladys Beckett was July 18 at Spencer Libby & Powell Funeral Home in The Dalles. Private burial was at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

Mrs. Beckett was born Nov. 27, 1900, at New Salem, Mo., to Raney and Florence Whittaker Van Horn, the youngest of three daughters.

The family moved to Fossil in 1902.

She married Charles R. Beckett on Aug. 16, 1918, in Pendleton. They lived and farmed in the Eight Mile area near Heppner until 1958 when they moved into Heppner. Mr. Beckett died in 1973 and Mrs. Beckett moved to The Dalles in 1983.

Survivors include daughters, Norma Jean Johnson of Dufur and Florence McCarty of Portland; two granddaughters, five great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Providence Center Heart Fund or to a charity of choice, directly or through Spencer Libby & Powell, 1100 Kelly Ave., The Dalles, OR 97508.

Snap Shots

By Annie Hisler, Reporter
On July 12, Snap Shots Club met at Kate's Pizza for a photography meeting at 11 a.m.

Rick Worden and Donnie Pointer lead the pledges and Sarah Greenup read the minutes of the past meeting.

Members discussed what photos to enter for fair and how to mount them.

Leader, Susie Hisler, helped members fill out premium sheets and part of the record books.

One last photo outing is planned before fair by going to Lake Penland July 26.

The next meeting is set for Aug. 8 at Kate's Pizza.

Two-Trackers

The Two-Trackers Horse Club continues to meet Sunday afternoons at 3 p.m. Remember, only a few more weeks to fair. Sunday July 29 will be record book review. Members should bring record books to the meeting. The registration sheet for fair is due in by next Friday, July 27. Be sure to mark your calendar for Saturday, Aug. 4 at 9 a.m. for fair clean up. The club needs help getting ready for the horse show.
