Obituaries

Mildred N. Rhea

The funeral for Mildred Norma Rhea was Monday, Aug. 20 at the United Methodist Church in Hermiston. Burial was at the Hermiston cemetery.

Mrs. Rhea, 72, of Hermiston, died Wednesday, Aug. 15, 1990, at Good Shepherd Community Hospital in Hermiston.

She was born Oct. 12, 1917 at Pendleton.

On April 12, 1936, Easter Sunday, she married Carl Rhea in the parsonage of the Pendleton Methodist Church.

She and her husband farmed in the Sand Hollow area, 28 miles southwest of Hermiston in Morrow County for 27 years before moving to Hermiston in March 1980.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Hermiston; a member of the Order of Eastern Star where she was a past matron and a member of the Pollyannas. She also did work for the Red Cross and was active in Home Extension and in 4-H.

Survivors include her husband, Carl, at the home; son, Steven, of Heppner; daughters, Carlene McFarlan of Forest Grove, Sandra Kelley of Albany and Lori Sutphin of Pendleton; sisters, Audrey Groh of Portland and Lois Beaudoin of Hermiston; and seven grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association through Burns Mortuary in Hermiston.

Richard R. Borman

A graveside funeral service for Richard R. Borman was held at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery on Friday, Aug. 17.

Mr. Borman, 79, of Yakima, formerly of Heppner, died Tuesday, Aug. 14, 1990 at Yakima Valley Memorial Hospital.

He was born Jan. 14, 1911, at Baker to Edward and Sarah Hanby Borman. He was raised on a ranch near Whitney, Ore., and at the age of 17, moved to Heppner where he went to work on the D.O. Justus sheep ranch near Heppner.

On May 5, 1934 he married Lorna Patton at Heppner.

In 1944, he went to work for the Harry Duvall wheat ranch and in 1948 began working for the Morrow County Road Department. He retired from the road department in 1969 due to ill health. He and his wife moved to Yakima in 1970.

Survivors include his wife at the home in Yakima; daughter Lynda Arlene Dunlap of Pendleton; sister, Myrtle Hacker of Baker; brothers Louis of Baker and Floyd of Lexington; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. A sister, Thelma Hansen, died earlier.

Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner, was in charge of arrangements.

Monday, Aug. 27.

Work on the water lines on that street will be completed prior to repaving.

Cars will be detoured during construction time. Merchants on Willow Street may also have their sidewalks repaved at their own cost at that time, said Marshall Lovgren, city administrator.

Jazz group to form

Any vocal or instrumental Jazz musician who would like to be involved in singing or playing in a jazz group or combo with other adult residents of Morrow County should contact Kathy Hoskins, 676-5143, Heppner, or 481-3532, Boardman. A group is being formed to meet twice a month to play/sing a variety of jazz music including but not limited to be-bop (swing), blues and ballads. "If this gets going," said organizer Kathy Hoskins, we will have groups in both the north and south end of the county and possibly combine for performances.

Hoskins says the group is especially looking for a jazz pianist and a bass guitarist.

Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

* What is this wet stuff falling from the sky? Isn't it wonderful to see the drops of dew on everything and the dust settle. Those attending the rodeo on Friday night were treated to a beautiful rainbow disappearing behind the cross on the hill.

* As of today, the county for Cycle Oregon is 1,845. Each day we receive new updates in the mail and deadlines are drawing closer. Ukiah was hosting 170 cyclists on Monday. The park was filled to capacity with multi-colored tents and spandex drying on the fence. All I could think of was "ten times that many in less than three weeks." Things like a smiley faced balloon, a sign above my typewriter that reads "first you breath" and terrific co-ordinators keep me plunging ahead.

* Winner of the drawing for a "Heppner Survivor" Cycle Oregon T-shirt is Audrey Edmundson, a resident of Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home. Congratulations, Audrey. These T-shirts are available at the Heppner Chamber Office at $12 each. Bright raspberry shirts will depict Heppner and jade shirts will be sold to the cyclists.

* Chamber will hold a regular Tuesday meeting August 28 at the Heppner Elks. Program will be a presentation by Sarah Carlson on the "Gold Card" program, an academic achievement recognition program she would like to propose to the business community.

Thought for the week: "Enjoy the little things. One day you may look back and realize they were the big things."
