

The Adventures of Grazelda & Clem

(After Hours)
5:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m.
Clem announced, "Gee Grazelda, did you see all them bicycle folks down around Miller's Mini Mart & Chevron Sunday evening? I was gonna join them and ride all the way to Newport." Grazelda smirked, "Sure you were Clem, and I was gonna fly to the moon." Clem inquired, "Gee Hon, why would you want to fly to the moon?" Grazelda groaned, "Clem, you're sooooo slow, you're slower than dirt!"

Mustangs stumble past Union, 14-6

The Heppner Mustangs opened their 1990 football season on the road beating the Union Bobcats, 14-6 in a non-conference affair on Friday, September 7 at Union.

First game jitters were apparent in the first quarter as neither team mounted a drive and there were several turnovers. The Bobcats broke on top in the second quarter with quarterback Mike Moffitt scoring on a one-yard keeper. The pat was unsuccessful.

The Mustangs tied the game before halftime when Bob Krein hooked up with Brandon Pedro on a 10-yard touchdown pass. The pat was no good.

Heppner scored again in the third period as Doug Devin stepped in front of an errant Bobcat toss and rammed 48 yards for the deciding touchdown. The Mustangs went for a two-point conversion and succeeded, making the final score 14-6. The Mustangs were plagued with seven turnovers, three lost fumbles and four pass interceptions. The offense stalled because of 10 penalties totalling 120 yards.

Heppner JV footballers triumph over Stanfield

The Heppner Mustang JV's started their season on a winning note with a 24-2 victory over Stanfield on September 10 at home.

The Mustangs started slowly, turning the ball over on a blocked punt and a fumble on the first two possessions of the game. Stanfield scored first, dragging the Mustang running back down in the endzone for a safety. Heppner couldn't move the ball the rest of the half and were lucky to be down 2-0 at the half. Only two good goal line stands kept them close. Coach Presley acknowledged the slow start saying the Mustangs were "shaky in the first half."

The Mustang defense overwhelmed Union, holding them to 91 yards of total offense. Doug Devin, Jay Michael and Brandon Pedro were defense point leaders in the backfield while Bubba Burt showed he will be a force to be reckoned with, teaming with Kevin Bond on the defensive line to stop the Bobcats cold. Next up for the Mustangs is Ritzville, Washington. Heppner traveled to Ritzville last year and came out on top in the first game between these two teams. The Mustangs first home game of the season, September 14, starts at 7:30 p.m. at the Morrow County Fairgrounds.
