Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

This morning a doe and her twins were eating apples under the apple tree; a phone call came soliciting pies for the hunters pie sale; a Town and Country planning meeting is scheduled; a lone leaf lay on the deck; the morning was crisp and fresh; and I had to brake for pheasant, porcupine and deer. It must be fall.

* Be sure to note the letters to the editor section; thank you are pouring in from pleased cyclists. One lady shared: "I really liked the psycho part of the T-shirt and your little newspaper with the recipe for 2000, but you forgot to say what to mix it in....somebody's bathtub."

* Chamber was treated to a Swiss adventure at noon as Brigitte Neff, IFYE from Switzerland shared her background, slides and delightful personality with members.

* USA Weekend featured Heppner as one of five uncrowded leaf tours with its Blue Mountain Scenic Byway. John Keerseemaker, forest ranger, was quoted as saying "there is no congestion and it is scenic and beautiful." The article went on to say that visitors would see North Fork John Day overlook with a vista of the North Fork John Day River, and aspens and alders in yellow, gold, orange and red against a green background of Western larch. John is one of those people who make up the Morrow County Tourism Committee. (Highway 74 to Willow Creek road, to Forest Service 53, to Forest Service 52.)

* Join the Morrow County Tourism committee members October 2, 6 p.m. at the Morrow County Fairgrounds for a potluck and visiting about tourism. Bring a main dish and a dish to share. Beverages will be provided.

* Next week is the monthly Chamber business meeting.

Thought for the week: "The best thing to do behind a persons back is to pat it."
