

Mustangs slug it out with La Pine

Cory Graybeel (3) looks for opening while Kevin Kilkenny (60) blocks up front

Where's the beef? Quite a bit of it lives in La Pine, Oregon. The La Pine High School Hawks rolled into town Friday, September 21 and handed Heppner their first loss of the season, 8-6. The Hawks looked more like a 4A Roster with six players over 220 pounds and four more over 190 pounds. La Pine's only loss of the season has been to Kennedy High School, the number-one ranked team at 2A level.

Despite the overwhelming size advantage and the constant pounding of the Hawks into the line, the Mustangs used their grit and quickness to stay in the game until the very end.

La Pine threatened early when, on Heppner's second possession, a bad punt snap set the Hawks up on the Mustangs' 35-yard line. Six running plays got La Pine a first and goal on Heppner's eight-yard line. The defense, with one of several goal line stands of the night, stopped the Hawks on fourth and goal with Doug Devin taping the ball carrier for no gain.

The Mustangs couldn't get untracked offensively and the half ended in a scoreless tie as the defense of the Mustangs rose to the occasion time after time, giving up yardage but stopping the Hawks when they had to.

La Pine put together an impressive scoring drive to start the second half, going 74 yards in 12 plays, and Bo Deforest blasted over from the one-yard line. The drive consumed six minutes and 52 seconds. The attempted two-point pat was stopped by Heppner and the Hawks led, 6-0.

On the next series, Heppner fumbled and the Hawks recovered on the Mustangs 32-yard line. La Pine lumbered down the field to the one-yard line, only to be stopped by a tough defensive stand by Heppner.

With the fourth quarter just starting, the Mustangs cautiously ran two quarterback sneaks, moving the ball to the four-yard line. On third and six Heppner tried a pitch and Devin was tackled in the end zone for a safety, giving La Pine an 8-0 lead.

The Hawks continued their ball control tactics. They ran 38 running plays in the second half. The Mustangs ran six. La Pine was knocking at the goal line again on their next possession when Cory Grabeel picked up a bobbled pitch and sprinted 95 yards for a touchdown to pump up the Mustangs. The pat try, a pass into the end zone, was incomplete and Heppner trailed 8-6. Heppner had one more opportunity with 2:10 left in the game but three incomplete passes ended the Mustang's bid to get back into the game and La Pine walked away with the 8-6 win.

A bright spot for the Mustangs was the entire defensive effort. Devin and Jason Britt again led the defensive charge. A trio of defensive ends, Grabeel, Jake Maben and Ryan Currin, rotated in and raked up the Hawks all night long. Brandon Pedro picked off a pass interception for the second week in a row.

The Mustangs running attack didn't gel against the large Hawks. Coach Grant explained that, "we put in a lot of offense this week and didn't run it very well." Grant said he was very pleased with the overall effort of the Mustangs.

Heppner, with a 2-1 season record, starts into league play this week, traveling to Stanfield to face a team that has been hammered in each of their outings this year. Besides missing Cory Grabeel who transferred to Heppner last spring, Vance Crafton, another of their top players, transferred to Hermiston and is playing for the Bulldogs.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. in Stanfield on September 28. The crowds haven't been too large for Heppner's first two home games and the Mustangs are hoping for a large contingent of home town fans in Stanfield to cheer them on.

Cardinals fall short in shoot-out with Condon

By Anne Morter

The Ione Cardinal football team fell short in a shoot-out with the Condon Blue Devils last Friday night, 65-40. Both teams had trouble mustering much defensive power in the high scoring battle. The Cards record now goes to 1-2.

In the good news department for Ione, the Cardinals discovered an air attack. Sophomore quarterback, David Wagenblast completed 11 passes out of 18 attempts for 221 yards and three touchdowns. "We found out we could throw the football," said head coach Gregg Rietmann.

The Cards stayed within striking distance until the third quarter when their defense broke down and Condon got away for good. The Blue Devils had two quick scores shortly before halftime and they came out

Pre-school to begin in Ione

By Anne Morter

A pre-school for three and four year old children is in the works in Ione. A teacher and a location have been found, leaving organizers with the more difficult subjects, money and supplies.

Plans call for the pre-school to operate three days a week, with the four year olds attending two days and the three year olds attending one. Debbie Holtz of Ione will be the teacher. She is certified in early childhood education, receiving her training at Eastern Oregon State College.

Organizers are seeking donations of supplies and money. They have also planned several fund raisers, including a bake sale and car wash to be held October 6 in conjunction with the community yard sale.

November 1 is the tentative date to start operations. For further information contact Cathy McCabe or Sharon Rietmann.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

Disappointment came to seniors here this past Monday when the arrival of the long-awaited new bus was postponed until next week. So we are still looking forward and will let everyone know the date and time of its arrival. Visitors from Salem, The Dalles and Pendleton will be here for the party, too.

Another change, this time a correction, from last week's bulletin board refers to the reason for the increase in the suggested donation for our Wednesday meals. Marla Barnhart, Pendleton, supervisor of the ECOAC nutrition program, called me yesterday asking me to dispel a mistaken report that meat commodities will no longer be available. She asked that everyone be told that all meats that have been regularly supplied are still available, except chicken pieces, and that turkey ham has been added to the list. Probably this means we will return to our regular $1.50 donation.

This week: Friday Joni Reid of the Oregon State Transportation Dept. will be teaching a workshop for senior center drivers in ECOAC on assistance techniques for transporting seniors and the handicapped. This is from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. with our cooks serving luncheon at 12.

Next week: Monday quilters from 1 to 4 p.m.

Tuesday: "Swing into Shape" exercise group for seniors at 10 a.m.

Wednesday: Noon dinner with helper friends from the Lexington Baptist Church.

Thursday: "Swing into Shape" at 10 a.m. This is non-aerobic exercise but a good work out for seniors. All seniors about town are welcome. We have a good time. We laugh and we "keep breathing."

One day next week: Welcome party for our new bus with refreshments and a ride.

The Dollaride Car is still running. Rita Hedman can no longer be a driver because she has taken a job that takes most of her time. We appreciate the driving she has done for Dollaride, lots of miles and lots of people. We are looking for volunteer drivers. Delta Huber for Tuesdays and I for Thursdays are the only regular drivers now, but try us for other days if we can make it.

The Heppner Ponies played their first game at home Sept. 20 against the Columbia Raiders. The Ponies had the ball the whole first quarter but never scored. In the second quarter the Ponies fumbled the ball and the Raiders recovered it close to their seven yard line. The Ponies put on some hard defense and the Raiders fumbled the ball with the Ponies recovering it. The Ponies scored on a 40 yard run by John Qualls with Matt Keersemaer running for an extra point.

The Raiders got the ball and fumbled it again with the Ponies recovering it. Shaun Hisler scored on a 15 yard run but the Ponies missed the extra point.

In the second half Troy Wilson scored on a 20 yard run with Hisler running for an extra point. The Ponies beat the raiders 20-0.
