Sue Warren named Blue Mountain College coordinator

Sue Warren

Sue Warren of Ione has been named the new area coordinator for Blue Mountain Community College. She replaces Marsha Sweek.

A half-time kindergarten teacher in Ione, Warren will be responsible for the recruitment and planning of college classes in the south Morrow County area.

"I'd like to have some different classes," Warren said about her plans for the job. She said she is taking suggestions and information from local people now, to plan the winter class schedule.

Warren said one change for winter term is the requirement that people pre-register through the coordinator. "They will need to get their checks in early so we know if there are enough students to hold a class," she said. "If students don't pay by the first class, there might not be a class," she added about the stricter payment rules.

A few of the classes you can expect to see in the winter term are Lotus and Word Perfect computer classes, watercolor class, beginning Spanish, Christmas crafts, gourmet cooking, knitting and spinning class, and weight training.

If people have an idea for a class they can contact Sue at 422-7040. "We can do just about anything, and I'd like to get some different classes going," she said.

Warren has been a resident of Ione since 1985. Previously she and her husband, who is a county sheriff deputy, lived in Heppner for four years. She has worked for the Children Services Division as well as teaching. She and her husband have three children.

College rep to visit Heppner

Cindy Klaus, an admissions representative from Linfield College will visit Heppner High School October 31 at 1:30 p.m.

She will meet with students to discuss admission requirements, course offerings and financial aid offered through the College.

Linfield is a four-year, independent liberal arts college in McMinnville, one hour southwest of Portland. It is a liberal arts and sciences college. Study abroad is combined with curricular and extracurricular programs.

Applications taken for holiday food baskets

Applications are now being taken at the Neighborhood Center of South Morrow County for persons who need a Thanksgiving and/or Christmas basket. Deadline for Thanksgiving baskets is Monday, November 5, and December 1 for Christmas baskets.

Applications are also being taken at the center for households that need firewood for winter heating.

The process for the selection of a new center coordinator is moving along on schedule and word on the new coordinator should be available before November 1.

At the last board of directors meeting new officers were elected: Rev. Stan Hoobing is president; Pastor Grace Drake vice-president; Verna Brinda secretary; and Mike Vejraska treasurer.

Time slots for volunteers are open on Monday and Tuesday from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 5 p.m. Friday slot is from 1 to 5 p.m. Anyone who can give a couple or more hours of your time, please call the center office, 676-5024.

The next regular meeting of the board of directors will be on Tuesday, November 20, at 7:30 p.m.

Veterans service officer attends conference

Rita Hedman, Veterans service officer for Morrow County, attended the semiannual state wide Oregon County Veterans Service Officers Conference held October 17, 18 and 19 in Wilsonville.

The session, sponsored by the Oregon Department of Veterans Affairs, provided county veterans service officers with updated information necessary to assist Oregon veterans, their widows or widowers, and dependents in applying for state and federal veterans' benefits in such areas as: housing, education, counseling, claims, insurance, employment, medical, compensation and pension.

Keynote speakers included Rex A. Newell, director, Veterans Employment Service, U.S. Department of Labor; Carl Williamson, department service officer, American Legion; Richard P. Lucht, past department commander, Disabled American Veterans; representatives of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs' Medical Centers in Portland, Roseburg and White City; Major David N. Lackey, U.S. Army, Oregon Military Department.

Issues covered at this conference included Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, Veterans Reemployment Rights, Vietnam Veterans Family Assistance Program, and Title 38 Proficiency Training.

Still openings for parenting class

The Parenting Young Children class, offered by the Morrow County Children and Youth Commission, still has openings, according to Liz Curtis, MCCYC member and high school counselor.

The next meeting will be held Monday, Oct. 29 at 7:30 p.m. at the high school library.

Halloween topic of story time

Painting Jack O'Lanterns on faces and tales about Halloween will be done by Karla Waterland and Kay Proctor at Heppner's Public Library's children's storytime held at 10:30 a.m. on Monday, Oct. 29. All children are welcome.

The library is changing its children's storytime format because of a lack of volunteers. Storytime will be on a monthly basis only. Notices in the newspaper and posters will announce dates in advance. The library will continue to be open every Monday 10 to 11 a.m.

Scott Johnston selected for leadership competition

Scott Johnston, Heppner High School senior and son of Rick and Susan Johnston, has been selected to attend the William Randolph Hearst Youth Senate scholarship competition. The competition is sponsored by the Oregon Association of Student Councils.

According to Heppner High School counselor Liz Curtis, Johnston will leave Oct. 29 for an interview in Salem. Selection is based on student leadership.

Children invited to worship at Hope, Valby Church

Children of all ages are cordially invited to attend Sunday School at Valby Lutheran Church of Ione at 8:15 a.m. or at Hope Lutheran Church in Heppner at 9:45 a.m. As part of the religious education program, children in both churches are getting ready for a Christmas program in mid-December. It is important for those who want to be a part of these exciting events to attend Sunday School.

On Sunday, October 28, at the 9 a.m. worship at Valby and the 11 a.m. service at Hope in Heppner, Pastor Hoobing will be preaching on the theme, 'The Singing Preacher'. This sermon will involve the congregation as they listen and sing during the sermon.

Legion, Auxiliary meet

The Heppner Post 87 American Legion and Auxiliary held their monthly meeting on Monday, October 15, at the Legion Hall.

Plans were discussed for a fun night to be held on Saturday, October 27, at the Legion Hall beginning at 7 p.m. All Legion and Auxiliary members and guests are invited to attend.

Auxiliary members are again asking for donations for the veterans'

Christmas gift shop. The donations are sent to the veterans' hospitals and are used by the veterans as Christmas gifts for their families. Any donations may be dropped off at Evelyn Sweek's or Alberta Johannes's house by November 15.

The November meeting will be held on the 19th with a turkey dinner. December's meeting will be on the 17th. There will be a Christmas party that night also. All members are encouraged to attend.

MC Arts & Crafts members plan sale

Morrow County Creative Arts and Crafts members are planning an arts and crafts sale to be held Saturday, November 3, in the upstairs of Kate's Pizza from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A silent auction will be held for food items and arts and crafts with all proceeds to go to Morrow County Creative Arts and Crafts for program funds. All items will be donated by members. The silent auction will run from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. At the end of closing of bids all highest bidders may pick up their winning bid items or arrange for a club member to hold them until they can pick them up.

The MCCA&C have used funds for adult programs and children's classes this past year and plans are to continue these programs with funds available next year.

Members have been busy doing new pieces of art and many craft items. Craft items from rugs to bears will be available and orders will be taken for the holiday season. Six members also have had note cards made from original pieces of art work. The cards were printed locally by the Gazette-Times, making them a Morrow County item. These will be on sale in a group of six or individually.
