Watershed project meeting held

The second meeting regarding the Rock Creek Watershed Project with local landowners and agency personnel was held at Lonerock on Nov. 6. Planning groups were formed from Olex, Lonerock and Hardman, and they will report back with recommendations for watershed needs on Tuesday, November 20, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Olex school. A questionnaire was handed out to everyone who attended so landowners and planning groups could prioritize their needs and concerns with the watershed and bring their ideas back to the next meeting.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

By Jane Rawlins

The new bus did indeed arrive and made its maiden voyage to Fossil last Thursday evening to the Columbia Basin meeting and dinner. The smooth, quiet, comfortable ride convinced us that it was worth waiting for. We now have opportunities for pleasurable, educational, recreational tours about the country. Ideas for these jaunts are welcome.

Last week those attending the Wednesday meal elected three Senior Center Board directors to two year terms: Everett Keithley and Bud Batty were re-elected and John Wood was elected to replace Jane Rawlins.

Last Wednesday the Activities Committee evaluated their 1990 year and noted their accomplished goals included: catering several meals, starting a quilting group and an exercise class, monthly potluck parties, serving breakfast at the fairgrounds and potato soup and pie at the center on St. Patrick's weekend, monthly food sales, a pie and ice cream booth at the county fair, knitting classes, baking potatoes for Cycle III and luncheon for Wednesday dinner servers from the churches and establishing an area station for RSVP. The goals the committee then brainstormed for 1991 included continuing most of the above and adding: giving public dinners such as a pancake supper, 'chicken dumpling' family dinner, a 'super soup supper,' flower arranging classes or group, publication of a booklet of historical anecdotes, a weekly or monthly movie night in the front room, a drama group doing skits or a play, bingo, dances, meditation group, giving suggestions to the Transportation Committee for use of the new bus (such as visiting other senior centers, BMCC plays and concerts, Ashland for the play festival, etc.) watercolor painting, intergenerational activities with children and young people, and card parties. Success with these goals will depend largely on the response and participation of local seniors. This committee merits praise and encouragement for their vision and effort in expanding the scope of activities and service offered through this center. Members are chairperson Shirley Haugen, Daisy Collins, Barbara Jean Struthers, Theta Lowe, Marilyn Bergstrom, Irene Schroeder, Velma Wight, Rachel Harnett and Jane Rawlins. Anyone interested in being in this group is invited to join.

This week: Wednesday servers from the St. Patrick's church served the noon Thanksgiving dinner.

Next week: Monday-Quilters and Company at 1 p.m. Tuesday-Sing Into Shape Exercise group at 10 a.m. Mary Ella Moyer and friends will be baking in the kitchen for a private sale.

Wednesday-Thanksgiving food sale at 9 a.m. in the front room. Noon dinner menu will be barbecued beef on a bun, corn, fresh vegetable tray, hot bread and fruit jello. Helpers will come from the Seventh Day Adventist and Nazarene Churches. Incidentally apologies go to the Latter Day Saints Church for inadvertently omitting their name in last week's bulletin board. They have been ever-faithful in helping us.

Thursday Thanksgiving Day there will be no exercise group and our office will be closed. However, a message can be left on our answering machine.

Two pieces of good news have just come our way; Barbara Jean Struthers will lend us her piano for the dining room and Shirley Haugen has volunteered to be another driver for the Dollarair car. Shirley says she can drive on Fridays and maybe other days too. She can be reached at 676-5352.

"Grow old along with me. The best is yet to be, the last of life for which the first was made." Remember that one?
