Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

A soft blanket of snow covers the blue mountains, Advent season is just around the corner, lights are beginning to twinkle everywhere and many busy people will panic when they turn the calendar to December in just a few days.

If you're having trouble finding the Christmas spirit, be sure to watch an old Christmas classic that is on television at least two or three times during the season... "Miracle on 34th Street". It's about business/customer relations, faith, hope and love...one of those rare movies the entire family can watch.

Speaking of the spirit of Christmas, the Lions Club, Morrow County Cattlemen and Women and Heppner Masonic Lodge have donated toward the refurbishment of the Christmas decorations. An earlier donation came in from the Willow Creek Country Club Auxiliary. These are gifts which will be visible for years to come.

Mark your calendars. The annual Christmas Artifactory, Saturday, December 1, brings visitors from all over. The following week, December 9, parents have the opportunity to shop while their children have lunch with Santa, sponsored by Heppner Chamber. You won't have to worry about blowing dust.

The ranching community will be holding their annual meeting Friday, December 7, and invite everyone to join them for the social hour and dinner that evening. Please RSVP to the Extension office by December 3.

Next week will be the Heppner Chamber business meeting, always the first Tuesday. Have you picked up your Town & Country award nomination forms yet?

Thought for the week: "There is more to life than increasing its speed"...Gandhi.
