Roby C. Chappell

Graveside services for Roby C. Chappell were held at Hillview Cemetery in Ione, Dec. 1, 1990. Chappell, 73, died Thursday, Nov. 29, 1990 at Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner.

He was born June 7, 1917, in Woodland to Thomas and Effie Farmer Chappell. He married Ethel Hill on Aug. 13, 1935 in Woodland and moved to Oregon in 1942.

Chappell lived in the Condon/Spray/Heppner area. Following his retirement from the State Highway Department in 1980 he lived in Ione.

He enjoyed tending his fruit and vegetable garden; it was his favorite hobby.

Survivors include his wife, at the home and his sister Pauline Gates, Ione.

Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner, was in charge of arrangements.

Charles H. Willis

Family services were held for Charles H. Willis and private interment was at the Irrigon Cemetery.

Willis, a resident of the Irrigon/Boardman area since 1974 died Wednesday, Nov. 28, 1990, at the Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston. He was born in Atwood, Kan., on May 2, 1920, to Blanche and William Willis.

He grew up in Oklahoma and moved to the West coast in 1939. He worked as a pipe fitter/welder for 45 years, belonging to local No. 290 of Portland.

He married Grace Ellen Turnbull on Feb. 14, 1948, in Benton City, Wash. During their marriage of 42 years they lived in California, Idaho, Washington and Oregon. He dairy farmed many of those years and raised quarter horses in retirement.

They moved to Pahramp, Nev., where he loved the sunshine and heat. After he was diagnosed with cancer in June of 1989 they moved back to their home in Boardman to be near their family.

Survivors include his wife at the home; son James of Clatskanie, three daughters, Charlotte Verley of Irrigon; Susan DeVries and Mary Reed both of Tillamook; five brothers and sisters, Jual Coates, Bud Willis and Norma Smith, all of Benton City, and Dorothy Muir and Jerry Willis of Anchorage, Alaska; and 13 grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society directly or through Burns Mortuary in Hermiston.

Donald C. Smith

Donald C. Smith, 42, Heppner, died at Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner on Saturday, Dec. 1, 1990. At Mr. Smith's request there will be no funeral services.

He was born July 9, 1948 at Portland to Henry and Minnie Smith. He grew up in the Portland area and attended schools there.

During the Vietnam War, he served with the U.S. Marine Corps.

On April 3, 1989, he married Carman Harpenau at Vancouver, WA. The couple moved to Heppner from Monument earlier this year.

Survivors include his wife at the home; son, David of Pendleton; father, Henry Smith of Lake Oswego; sister, Joan Blizzard of Lake Oswego.

Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner, was in charge of arrangements.

4-H News

North Lexington Livestock By Tina Kemp, Reporter

The meeting was called to order by Geri Grieb. Officers were elected: president-Nancy Morter; vice president-Justin Miller; secretary-Bridgett McElligott; treasurer-Dani Hill and reporter-Tina Kemp.

Leaders Grieb and Kathy Rauch discussed field trips for the new year. An award was given for the most active club members. There was a tie between Tina and Toni Kemp. Three new members were introduced and they are Casey Evans, Angela Munkers and Tony Bjerke. There were 16 members present and after the meeting members played basketball and had refreshments.

The Crazy Cookers By Becky Wagenblast, Reporter

On Tuesday, November 6, Ione's 4-H Cooking Club, the Crazy Cookers, met to discuss and practice what they were going to cook for the Make It Yourself With Wool contest which was to be held the following Monday.

For the contest they prepared chicken casserole, strawberry pudding, raw vegetables, and served rolls. In addition, they set the tables. Some of the members served at the contest. The meal was delicious and was a success thanks to the help of the members and their leaders.

Chamber Chatter By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

This job has many challenges and never ending variety, some unbelievable...like trying to catch a white rabbit in front of the Chamber Office today. Thanks to Dave Green and a visitor who happened along, it was soon contained in a box and carried off to its owner, we hope. It seemed to have its seasons mixed up. This is, after all, the Christmas season, which explains why part of the Chamber mail was addressed to Santa Claus, North Pole. (And the board wants me to write a job description.)

In preparation for a major community clean-up, the VISION 2000 committee is doing a survey (inserted in today's Gazette). Input and suggestions are needed from everyone. It will take just a minute to complete the form and will result in some positive changes. It's your turn.

Heppner Chamber will again sponsor the Christmas Lighting Contest. Judging will occur Sunday, December 16, so 'deck the halls'. And speaking of decking the halls, join us at the fire hall, Monday, December 10, for the Christmas decoration work party to refurbish the Main Street decorations. Food, laughter, making new friends, and a feeling of pride and accomplishment are assured. Bill Kuhn, Bob Kahl, and Joyce Hollomon, along with all the Cycle Oregon workers, made this project possible. Heppner Volunteer Firemen and the Senior Center are volunteering their time. 'Tis the season.

Looking ahead...Citizens of the year, Educator Volunteer Service Award, and the Business of the Year nominations are due December 21. Take a minute to fill out a nomination form to give recognition to a deserving person.

Next week join Chamber members for an elementary school musical presentation during lunch. The 18th, Fred Lundin will share the Morrow County Strategic Plan and the high school will offer some Christmas selections.

Thought for the week: "While you're saying something can't be done, don't interrupt the one who's doing it."

JV Fillies start season with win against Mac-Hi

By Lisa Willman

Heppner Fillies Junior Varsity basketball teams started their season on a winning note, beating Mac-Hi's JVs, 42-32.

The first quarter started out slow with both teams unable to make a basket and various turnovers. Then the momentum picked up and first Heppner then Mac-Hi would score. When the first quarter ended it was Mac-Hi 10, Heppner 8.

In the second quarter Mac-Hi, led by Allyson Winn, dominated the floor, out-scoring Heppner once again. At halftime the scoreboard read Mac-Hi 20, Heppner 13.

Going into the second half though, was another story. The Fillies came back into the game and ran fast break after fast break to pick up the game's tempo, led by Sara Greenup's five steals and Jodi Johnston's four. They held Mac-Hi to a total of only six points each quarter. Chrissy Schultz led offense in scoring with a game-high 12 points. Jenni Ashbeck tossed in 11 and Jodi Johnston chipped in eight to win the game 42-32.

First-year coach Lana Orr comes as a 1986 graduate from Heppner High and a member of the 1986 Girl's State Championship Basketball team. "I was very impressed with the way the girls played," stated coach Orr. "The second half was very strong and they made a great comeback. The team has a very high skill level with a lot of potential."

Coach Orr's team is composed of five sophomores, Donita Sharp, Michelle McCurry, Staci O'Brien, Jenni Ashbeck and Chrissy Schultz. The freshmen are Sara Greenup, Ruth Norton, Erin Fishburn, Gretchen Berretta, Kara Anotegui, Jodi Johnston, Alissa Brownfield and Toni Cutsforth.

Alumni volleyball tournament Dec. 29

The Heppner High Women's Alumni Volleyball Tournament to be held Dec. 29 at the junior high gym looks to be very promising with a large turnout of 40 players, say organizers.

The players are coming back for a reunion of teammates and the tournament will begin at 10:30 a.m. Saturday with a total of six volleyball matches throughout the day.

Schanno elected OWGL president

Paul Schanno, The Dalles, will lead the Oregon Wheat Growers League as president next year. He was elected during the OWGL's 63rd annual convention November 28 in Pendleton.

Although wheat is his primary crop, Schanno's 6,500 acre farm is a diverse mix of summer fallow wheat and barley and irrigated crops like cherries, apples and hay, plus conservation reserve acres and a commercial cow herd.

Working with the Wasco County wheat farmer will be Ben Holdman, Pendleton, vice president and Bob Johns, Athena, secretary-treasurer.

Historical Society to offer lapel pins

The Morrow County Historical Society has just received a shipment of Morrow County Lapel pins made of enamel which would make good small Christmas gifts. They also have notes with a pen and ink drawing of the historic Morrow County Courthouse and 1990 Chronicals. All of these items are available at the Morrow County Museum Saturday through Wednesday from 1-5 p.m.

The society is still working on a project for an information center at Wells Springs and is bringing the listings of Morrow County cemeteries up to date. Anyone wishing to be a member of the Historical Society or who wants to help with the preservation of our history may contact Ruth McCabe, Delpha Jones or Jean Nelson.

Degree of Honor meeting planned

The December 11 meeting of the Degree of Honor will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Shirley Connor with a gift exchange and finger snacks.

Oregon Grains Commission conference room, located at 1200 NW Front Avenue, Suite 520, and will commence at 8:30 a.m.
