

Heppner Jr High honors students

Heppner Junior High School announces the first quarter honor roll for their seventh and eighth grade students.

Students achieving a 3.5 or better were Ben Ewing, Tina Kemp, Dan Burnside, Jenny Krein, Ethan Burnside, Mark Moeller, Tracy Blodgett, Dani Hill, Deanna Peck, John Qualls, Bryce Tucker and Brent Wright.

Students achieving a 3.0 or better were Brian Struckmeier, Jenny Burkenbine, Bethani Cookston, Phillip Spicer Kuhn, Jessica Sumner, Matt Keersemaier, Shaun Hisler, Trent Hughes, Chad Skroch, Chris Dickenson, Rondi Robinson, Tina Chinen, Troy Wilson, Jennifer Marvin and Patty Anderson.

Heppner Jr. High is starting a new honor program for those students who achieve a 3.5 or better. These students will be issued an "honor card" which will allow them special recognition by businesses and service organizations in the Heppner/Lexington area. Each individual business or service organization will create their own way of recognizing the honor cards.

"Through this program the school is hoping to build some positive ties with the community while providing our top students with the recognition they deserve for achieving academically," said program coordinator Sarah Carlson. If you are part of a service organization or are a business owner and would like to know more about the program, contact Sarah Carlson at Heppner Elementary School 676-9128.

The Adventures of Grazelda & Clem

(After Hours)

5:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m.

Grazelda got up that morning and weighed herself. She wasn't too happy. She vowed not to gain a pound. She jogged seven miles, she walked fourteen miles. She tortured herself by thinking about candy bars, chips, pop and maple bars that she could get at Miller's Mini Mart & Chevron. Happy with herself, Grazelda climbed back on the scales at noon—she gained 8 pounds!

1 CARD OF THANKS

There is no way I can tell everyone how much my son Kevin Ball and his family appreciate all the support that has been shown since he has been in Saudi Arabia.

A special thanks to Robin Baker and the people of Ione for the packages they have sent. Also a big thank you to Jennie Allen and her class, Joy Krein and her class and Sue Warren and her class.

A big thank you to grandma and grandpa Pettyjohn, the Perez family, the Quall family, Aunt June, Aunt Melba, Aunt Marilyn, Aunt Rita and Aunt Jeannine and the Dick Allen family, and anyone else I might have missed.

Words cannot tell you how much Kevin has enjoyed every package, letter and card.

He says he has been one of the lucky ones in receiving so many packages. They share everything they receive.

It is so nice to live in a community where everyone shows so much love and support.

Thank you all and may you know Kevin will have a little taste of Christmas.

May God bless and keep each and everyone of you this next year.

Marie and Jim Boor and family
