

Hiemstras win lighting contest

Ed and Marylee Hiemstra, 680 Alfalfa St., won first prize in Heppner's outdoor Christmas lighting contest this year, while Randall and Marlene Peterson of 195 Gale took top honors for indoor decorations.

Second place for outdoor lighting went to Ernie and Mary Jean McCabe on Water street, and second place for indoor display was won by Cheri and Gary Clark of Fairview. Third place for outdoor display went to Donna and Chuck Moeller on Quaid St.

Special business decoration award went this year to the Heppner Gazette-Times.

The lighting contest, which features cash prizes, is sponsored each year by the Heppner Chamber of Commerce in an effort to encourage more and better Christmas decorations in Heppner.

1992 seniors plan Disneyland trip

Think California. Think Disneyland. Next year the seniors plan to go to Disneyland for the senior class trip.

To meet this goal the seniors are planning various fundraisers. On December 18, an afghan was raffl-ed at the Heppner/Condon home game. A doll and some wood will also be raffled sometime in the future at a home basketball game. A shopping cart full of groceries has also been raffled at every home game. Raffle tickets are 50 cents each or 3 for $1.

Ione Garden Club holds Christmas luncheon

The annual Christmas luncheon and party of the Ione Garden Club was held at the home of Pat Pettyjohn on Dec. 12 with Delpha Jones as co-hostess. During the meal each member read some item dealing with Christmas legends or folklore. Guests for the day included Barbara Emert, Thelma Lindner, Ruth McCabe and Megan McCabe.

During the business meeting it was announced that the Burning of the Greens will be held Jan. 7 at 2:15 behind the Woolery Park. Everyone is invited.

On December 13 club members met at the home of Phyllis Anderson and made swags for the business houses of Ione and delivered them that day. Discussion was held concerning the Flower Show department at Morrow County Fair to be held Aug. 15-19. A committee of Jean Nelson, Delta Huber and Helen Martin will look over the recent schedule and make suggestions for changes so that this will be ready for the Fair Committee in January.
