1 CARD OF THANKS

To all the wonderful neighbors and friends who came with needed necessities and food. A special thank you to the children of Heppner who gave up some of their prized possessions so the children could have some toys. May God bless each and everyone of you children. Thanks to the churches in the area. Thanks Fr. Condon, we are looking forward to getting into a new place to live and getting our lives back to normal. We hope someday we will be able to repay each and everyone in a special way. Also thanks to Jerry and Joyce Hollomon for the shoes. Thank you all so very much.

1 CARD OF THANKS

A special thanks to all those players coming home for the alumni volleyball tournament. Without them, the tournament would not have been a success. A fun reunion of players and a good brand of volleyball was played.

Thank you to all those parents for relaying messages on playing times & etc.

Thank you's go out to Walt Pilgrim and Cindi Doherty for officiating and Cyde Estes, Joan McDaniels, Tricia Coe, Holly Eckman, Sara Greenup, Jodi Wilson, Jenny Krein, Kelsie Evans, Char Coe, Angie Bergstrom, Rene' Devin and Dale Wilson for helping run the tournament.

Those that couldn't make the tournament due to weather conditions, we hope to see you in 1991.

Christmas day started out to be the worst day ever imaginable. But I have much to be thankful for. God gave me my life and the lives of my children. He also blessed me with many wonderful friends, neighbors and relatives. Thanks to Dr. Ed and Dr. Jeanne Berretta, the whole PMH staff, especially to Carl Lauritsen who took me to Portland the next day for glasses so I could see. The Murrays & Murrays Drug, the Burkenbines and Central Market, the fire department, I appreciate each and every one of them. They spent their day battling the blaze for hours. To Mr. Wick a big thank you for the use of the hospital house, to Dr. Wenberg for help with the children.
