

Jean Nelson honored by OSU Extension at banquet

Jean Nelson

Jean Nelson was one of six individuals to be honored by the OSU Extension Association as outstanding cooperators for their support and involvement in Extension.

Her award was presented by Roger Fletcher, associate director, OSU Extension Service, at the 1991 Town and Country Days Banquet last Friday, January 18.

Jean McElhinney Nelson first came to Morrow County in the late 1930s as a home economics teacher at Heppner High School. She left Morrow County to serve as Extension Home Economics Agent in Yamhill County. Jean returned to marry the late Norman Nelson of Lexington.

Through the years, Nelson has continued her involvement with Extension programs in Home Economics, 4-H Youth Development, Wheat Production and home gardening, points out Carol Bennett, OSU Extension agent in Morrow County.

As a volunteer, Nelson helped organize the Ione Extension study group in 1970 and served for 22 years on the county Homemakers Advisory Council. She served many years on the Morrow and Umatilla Home Economics Program Development Committee. Jean has also been a valued member of the Morrow County Extension Advisory Board.

In addition, she is active in Garden Club programs, Grange and the Morrow County Historical Society.

Others honored by the Extension association were Glen McKenzie, Summerville; Gladys Barclay, Waldport; Evelyn Clink, Parkrose; Diane Ostrom, Monmouth; and Marjorie Edwards, Junction City.

Ione JV girls dispatch Condon

By Anne Morter

The Ione girls' JV team had an easy time dispatching Condon last Saturday, defeating them 33-20. The young Cards held their opponents scoreless in the first quarter and outscored them 21-8 in the second period to put the game out of reach.

Amy Pointer led all scorers with 12 points for the Cards. She also paced a strong rebounding effort, pulling down 11 boards as her team out rebounded Condon, 52-26. Kristine Bedortha and Heidi Nelson each added 10 rebounds. Kristine Bedortha dished out five assists to lead that department.

Ione shot a respectable 35 percent from the floor, making 14 of 41. They were four of seven from the free throw line for 58 percent. Condon was nine of 64 for 14 percent from the floor and two of three from the line for 67 percent.

Coach Tom Bedortha was pleased with the effort, noting that Amy Pointer played a good game on both offense and defense. He also commended Erika Bergstrom for a strong defensive effort and Heidi Orem for solid play until she was forced out of the game in the third quarter with a knee injury.

The JV team's next outing is this Saturday Jan. 26, with a game against Sherman County.

Eric Orem picked for all-star team

By Anne Morter

Eric Orem, a junior at Ione High School, has been selected to participate in an All-Star Football Exchange to take place in London, England, March 15-23. The team, which will include 40 participants from all over the state of Oregon, classes 1A through 4A, will play two games in the London area against an all-star team from that area. In addition, they will spend time practicing and seeing the sights of London and the English countryside.

Eric, 5'11" and 155 pounds, was the starting center and defensive end on the 5-4 Ione Cardinal football team. He was also a Cardinal team captain. To date, Eric is the only player from Morrow County selected for this team.

To make the trip, Eric needs to raise $1500 by February 15. A benefit dinner is being planned for February 8 in conjunction with the Condon games in Ione. Donations are welcome and can be made at the Eric Orem school, to football coach Gregg Rietmann or to Eric himself.

Freshmen Mustangs trample Monument 58-31

By Lisa Willman

The Freshmen Mustang boys team traveled to Spray to play Monument and brought home the win 58-31.

The Frosh had a tough time the first quarter against Monument. Defenses were tight on both teams and it wasn't until two and a half minutes had ticked off the clock before the Mustangs scored the first points of the game. With just a few seconds left in the quarter Heppner led 8-6 until Monument shot for a three-pointer to lead the quarter by one point, 9-8.

In the second quarter, Heppner's fast hands led to several steals and enabled the Mustangs to pull ahead at the half, 22-14.

The last half of the game Heppner dominated all the way. Their shots sank through the hoop and a full court press helped them to get turnovers to score. The final score was Mustangs, 58, Monument 31.

Everyone who played scored at least two points. High scorers were all in double figures with Jerid Wickland scoring 12 points for the freshmen and Sam Sumner and Austin Coiner each adding 11.

Coach Bob Ployhar stated with a smile, "we played Pilot Rock last night and won and to win two games in a row is great. Our rebounding was good. We have had problems up until tonight so our practicing has finally paid off."

'Irrigation' topic for Historical Society essay

By Delpha Jones

"Irrigation" in north and south Morrow County was the topic chosen for this year's essay contest sponsored by the Morrow County Historical Society, for junior high students. Three prizes will be presented to the winners in May.

The essay is judged by teachers outside the county and must be between 500 to 1,000 words. It is hoped that there will be interest in this project and the project will help the students become aware of the advancement of issues important to our area, and the progress made from the homestead days until now.

The meeting, held at the Jim and Barbara Bloodworth home, started with a potluck dinner. A report was heard from Jean Nelson on the Wells Spring project. Flyers are available on the Oregon Trail and Wells Springs and have been distributed at other points of interest. The treasurer's report was given and the group was reminded of the memorial fund in the society. Cards of acknowledgement are sent to members of the bereaved families.

The Gazebo has not yet been moved in Boardman and the group expressed their disappointment that this project has not been carried out. The stone with the Indian markings in Ir-rigon has been moved to a better location and a sign will soon be completed for that project. Work has been done on the Groshens fountain in Heppner and work will be completed this spring.

An election of officers was held with president, Delpha Jones; vice president, Harold Peck; and secretary-treasurer Ruth McCabe. During the business meeting the guests watched a film on Celilo Falls.

Following the meeting Irvin Rauch was thanked for all the assistance given the society while he was in office as county commissioner. Those present were Ruth McCabe, Harold and Edna Peck, Jean Nelson, Darrell and Sue Vinson, Cecil and Delpha Jones guests Louis and Betty Carlson and the host and hostess Jim and Barbara Bloodworth.

JV Fillies lose to Helix

By Lisa Willman

Even though the JV Fillies lost to Helix, 32-54, the game was still a good one. Defensively the Fillies game improved and they didn't allow Helix to get in for rebounds.

The first half of the game was the Fillies best in defense. At halftime Helix had 23 points, but the Fillies were only behind by five points.

In the second half the Fillies had problems with defense and allowed Helix to shoot and score. The Fillies offense was better, however. They made 12 out of 18 shots, the best they've done all year. Helix only hit eight out of 25 from the foul line.

Freshman Jodi Johnston led the team with eight points and five steals. Gretchen Berretta added four points. Ruth Norton pulled down seven rebounds and sophomores Michelle McCurry and Chrissy Schultz helped on the boards with four each. The next Junior Varsity game will be Jan. 25, 3 p.m. against Weston-McEwen, there.
