

Fillies take win over Wasco; now 4-1 Lady Cards lose to Wheeler

Nikki Brisbois wrestles for the ball
By Lisa Willman

Coming back from their loss to Stanfield the Fillies who were injured were suited up and appeared ready to play Wasco County Saturday night, Jan. 19 in Heppner. The entire game was very slow-paced which seemed to frustrate the Fillies. The Fillies, however, had to make a fourth quarter comeback to beat the Redside 27-25.

Wasco County scored the first basket of the game and their tight inside defense made it very tough for the Fillies to shoot. The Fillies finally attempted some shots from outside and connected on two to end the quarter 4-8.

The second quarter was long and disastrous with the Fillies trying to shoot but unable to connect. At half time they still had not scored and were behind by 10 points with a score of 14-4.

Coming back from halftime Heppner decided to change the game. The Fillies started out playing man to man which created some turnovers and picked up the temp of the game. With four minutes left in the third quarter, the Fillies scored two baskets in a row for a score of 10-20. When time ran out the Fillies made 14 and Wasco 22.

In the final quarter the Fillies pushed to make a comeback. Both teams had five team fouls with 6:31 minutes left and score of 16-23. Less than a minute later the Fillies scored again and Wasco led by five points. Nikki Brisbois connected and the Fillies were behind by only three. With 3:26 left, Heather Eckman was fouled and sank one at the charity stripe and tied the score 23. Both teams were fouling alot but Wasco wasn't making any points at the foul line, a big relief for the Fillies as they pulled ahead with a little more than a minute left. The Fillies held on to win, 27-25.

Nikki Brisbois led the Fillies with 11 points and eight rebounds. Heather Eckman had seven points and also pulled down eight boards while Amy Greenup chipped in seven points and six rebounds.

"We'll take the win," stated coach Dowdy. "Our defense finally created offense so we could come from behind. This was a tough game. Wasco always plays a slower-paced game and the injuries on our team have weakened us a little." The Fillies are 4-1 in league play and 6-7 overall.

The next game will be in Athena against Weston-McEwen on January 25 and at home against Wahtonka Jan. 26.

The lone Lady Cardinals came close but just couldn't get past the tenacious Wheeler Falcons last Friday night, losing 60-49 in a hard fought battle. The Falcons, ranked number two in the last Class 1A poll, got an early jump on the Lady Cards, forcing them to play catch up for most of the game. Lone's league record dropped to 2-2, with their season mark at 8-5.

Wheeler pounced early, leading 17-8 at the end of the first quarter. The Lady Cards mustered some momentum in the second quarter to score 18 points and pull within seven at the half, 26-33. Lone got to within two points in the third quarter and again to within three with less than a minute to go in the game but Wheeler's experience showed as they pulled away in the final seconds.

Nancy Morter was the leading Cardinal scorer with 16 points, followed by Kari Morgan with 15 and Brandi Ball with 12. Wheeler's Tracie Geer was the game's high scorer with 20 points. The teams had 34 rebounds each. Wendy Anderson paced the Lady Cards with 12 boards and Kari Morgan added seven. Nancy Morter dished out four assists and nabbed five steals to lead those categories.

The Lady Cards had a good shooting night, hitting 21 of 44 for 48 percent from the field and 6-7 for 86 percent from the foul line. Wheeler had an off night, making just 21 of 78 from the floor for 27 percent. Things were better at the free throw line where they shot 12 of 18 for 67 percent.

According to coach Dana Heideman, bad passes cost Lone the game, noting that the Lady Cards racked up 35 turnovers. "Our inexperience showed," said Heideman. "They anticipate the ball really well." He commented that his team "played in streaks." He said that the Cardinals would be outplaying Wheeler and then mentally collapse, allowing the Falcons to open up a 10 point lead. Despite the loss, Heideman was happy with the effort. "We're making good progress. I was happy with the way we played," he said. He commended Wendy Anderson for a good game, making two of three shots from the floor, two of two from the line and pulling down 12 rebounds. He said that Nancy Morter did a good job, making seven of 10 from the field, as did Kari Morgan and Brandi Ball, who both hit six of 12 from the floor.

Next weekend, the Cards face Helix on Friday and Sherman County on Saturday. While the Helix game is not a given by any means, the critical game will be against the tall Sherman County Huskies, who currently lead the West Division of the Big Sky League. A win over Sherman would pave the way for a favorable seeding at the district tournament. Both games will be played in Lone.

Mustangs down Wasco

Bob Krein makes layin

The Mustangs muscled their way to a hard fought 76-63 victory at home Saturday night against a tough Wasco County Redside basketball team.

Going into the contest, both teams were tied in the CBC with 3-1 league marks so the victory was a big one for the Mustangs. It kept the Mustangs fighting for the top spot in the CBC with the Umatilla Vikings. Both teams have only one loss in league play and are knotted at the top of the standings. Three other teams are within one game of the top.

The Mustangs used a strong second half effort to subdue the stubborn Redside. Heppner scored 46 points in the second half to pull away from Wasco County in a game that was much closer than the final score indicated.

The Mustangs stormed into the lead, outscoring Wasco County 19-11 in the first period. Starters Brandon Pedro and Jason Britt both picked up their second fouls with the game only four minutes old. They both sat out the rest of the half and the Redside used a patient attack, beating the press, to lead at the half, 33-30.

Point guard Bob Krein sparked the Mustangs with four baskets in the third period with slicing drives to the hoop.

Ron Haguewood shoots perfect 25

Morrow County Gun Club reports that the first perfect 25 for the season was shot by Ron Haguewood. He bested 24 other shooters in the 16-yard competition.

Jeff Cutsforth posted a lone 23 from the 24-yard line to capture the handicap high-score position.

The 'Annie Oakley' game was shot as the last event of the day, with all participants enjoying a good time.

The club will open early, at 10 a.m. on Sunday, Jan. 27 for those who wish to post their scores prior to kickoff of the Super Bowl.

Brandon Pedro finally got untracked and scored eight points in the fourth quarter as the Mustangs pulled away in the last three minutes for the win.

The Heppner attack was as balanced as it has been all season. Eight players had from six to 13 points for the evening.

Rick Osmin led Heppner with 13 points. Krein and Pedro each added 12 points and Rick Koffler had 10 points, all in the first half.

With the Mustangs in foul trouble, Ryan Currin and Charlie Rathbun each came off the bench with six points and four rebounds in reserve roles.

Pedro and Doug Devin led Heppner on the boards with eight and seven respectively.

Scott Lacey, a 6'3" junior for the Redside led all scorers with 22 points. Kawika Wilcox, their senior floor leader, added 15 and Chad Dodge had 10.

The Mustangs travel to Athena Friday night to take on the Weston-McEwen Tiger-Scots in a crucial league contest before returning home Saturday to host the Wahtonka Eagles.
