Call to 911 averts tragedy in Heppner

Morrow County Undersheriff Verlin Denton credits Morrow County Sheriff's dispatcher De'Ann Reid with an "excellent job" in averting tragedy early Sunday morning.

According to the sheriff's report, the department received a 911 call at 3:18 a.m. Sunday. No one was on the line, but the dispatcher could hear loud noises and a disturbance in the background. She quickly put a trace on the call, located the scene and dispatched an officer to the Evergreen Apartments. Denton said that the trace took approximately 10 minutes. Sheriff's Deputy Terry Harper responded to the scene, discovered Wesley R. Bolin, 30, of Heppner, threatening a woman. According to Denton, when Harper tried to place Bolin under arrest, Bolin resisted, attempted to hit the deputy with a hammer and choke him. The woman again called the Sheriff's office, requesting help for the officer.

Denton and Deputy Gary Warren were then dispatched to the scene and, after a struggle, were able to place Bolin under arrest. Bolin was charged with assault IV, attempted assault I, assault on a public safety officer, resisting arrest and two counts of menacing. Bolin was lodged at Benton County Jail. Deputy Harper suffered bruises on his neck.

Denton said that the woman told the sheriff's department that Bolin had beaten her after the two had left a local tavern. The couple returned to the Evergreen Apartments and Bolin, intoxicated, had beaten her again, threatened to cut her and "gouge out her eyes," according to Denton. He said that the woman, fearful for her life, called the police, but said she was unable to speak to them over the phone, hoping that the sheriff's department would be able to trace the call.

To the supporters of the Heppner Fillies:

We would like to express our deepest appreciation to those individuals who offered their financial support to the Heppner Booster club during our recent District Tournament. With so much fundraising going on these days your support really is great. The t-shirts we received will be a long time reminder of this successful basketball season. Again, thanks alot.

Sincerely,
 The 1990-91 Heppner Fillies: Nikki Brisbois, Jodi Wilson, Amy Greenup, Heather Eckman, Nina Tucker, Amy Brownfield, Kim Johnston, Christy Corwin, Becky Norton, Sara Greenup, Jodi Johnston, Holly Eckman, coaches Mark Dowdy and Lana Orr

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to Dr. Ed Berretta and all of the Pioneer Hospital nursing staff for the wonderful care given me during my recent stay at the hospital. Also, to the many friends who remembered me with get-well and Valentine cards, flowers, plants, gifts and phone calls, you certainly helped keep my spirits up with your kind expressions of care and concern. Thank you one and all.
