Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

'Tis true that come rain, snow, sleet, hail or even sunshine St. Patrick's weekend is upon us. It always seems that some leprechaun made time to go a bit faster than usual and we all have much unfinished business, but it happens anyway. We have some terrific volunteers hard at work again.

I'm told parade entries are coming in daily, with the Pendleton Round-Up Court participating. Morrow County's own redheaded, green eyed queen, Jennifer Currin with Irish ancestors likely had something to do with this.

Don't miss the auction this year. There are some great items: a Tidewater Barge trip; two nights at Kah Nee Ta Lodge; a sternwheeler cruise; lunch at Cousins Restaurant in The Dalles; some antiques; Jim Farley's baked beans; breakfast in bed for two; gourmet dinner for four; Irish windscreens and much more to suit everyone's fancy. Many thanks to the donors.

Our 15 visitors from County Cork Ireland are now in Portland and will arrive in Heppner on Thursday. Ladies and gents and lads and lassies of all ages are encouraged to come to the grade school multipurpose room at 7 p.m. Thursday to learn set and step dancing from the Irish dancers. Then, be sure to attend their concert Friday night at 7:15 p.m. at the Junior High gym. This will include singing, dancing and Tim Joe Riordan's Band. If you can't contain your enthusiasm, there will probably be an opportunity to kick off your shoes and dance at the conclusion. I'm told they play all kinds of music. It will be great to experience another culture, and we want to give them a real Morrow County welcome. Maybe they'll come again next year and stay through Saturday.

"Heppnerites" are hard at work for St. Patrick's weekend...I hope there's a minute for a 'wee bit of fun for each and every one.' If you know where there's a green straight jacket for the mother of the bride, you might drop it off at the Chamber office.

"May good luck be with you wherever you go, and your blessings outnumber the shamrocks that grow."
