

Puppeteers entertain in Heppner

The Tears of Joy Theatre, based in Vancouver, WA., entertained children at Heppner Elementary and Middle Schools with a puppet show, March 12.

The three-person team of Robert

Paine, Maureen Higgins and Cynthia Combs (right) used puppets and costumes to present an adaptation of a Russian Folk Tale, "Baba Yaga". The puppeteers are touring in the Columbia Gorge area, including The Dalles, Centerville, Mosier and White Salmon.

Each year the Tears of Joy Theatre performs for over 200,000 people throughout the U.S. and abroad.

Day Care receives grant for pre-school scholarships

Heppner Day Care received a $1,000 grant from the Community Action Program of East Central Oregon (CAPECO).

This grant will be used to send children to pre-school who would be otherwise financially unable to attend.

The Board of Directors of Heppner Day Care will set up the guidelines of the scholarship programs. Applications will be available for parents to fill out. The scholarship will be based on need.

"We hope to be able to continue this scholarship program through different fund raisers and from businesses and private individuals," said Day Care director Kathy Tellechea. Anyone wishing to make a donation to the pre-school scholarship fund may do so by sending a check to Heppner Day Care Inc. PO Box 44, Heppner or drop by the Day Care during regular business hours. Day Care requests that donors specify on the check that it is to be used for the pre-school scholarship fund. All donations are tax deductible.
