Tennis team competes at Arlington tourney

By Anne Morter

The lone tennis teams kicked off their season last Saturday with a tournament in Arlington. The day went well for fourth-year coach, Cathy McCabe, and her young group of netters. Not only was the weather perfect for tennis, but they experienced a rare, windless day in Arlington to make playing conditions excellent.

In girls' action, the number one doubles team of Brandi Ball and Kari Morgan defeated Sandy Walters and Melissa Kinney of Arlington, 6-2, 1-6, 6-2. The number two doubles team, consisting of Erika Bergstrom and Heidi Orem also won, defeating Melissa Kinney of Arlington and Angie Cox of Helix, 8-5. In singles' play, number one singles player, Nancy Morter, lost in a tiebreaker to Sandy Walters of Arlington, 8-9. According to Coach McCabe, Nancy rallied from a large deficit to tie the game, before losing in the tiebreaker. Also, Heidi Orem downed Melissa Kinney of Arlington, 8-2, and Kristine Bedortha defeated Angie Cox of Helix, 8-5.

On the boys' side, number one singles player, Brent Sheirbon, defeated Travis Holton of Helix in a very close match, 7-5, 7-6. Freshman Mike Green lost to Greg Holton of Helix 0-8. In doubles' play, Aaron Heideman and Tony Bjerke fell to Matt Nordin and Wayne Miller of Helix, 5-8. Miller is Helix's coach who was filling in for an injured player.

"The day went well," said Coach McCabe. "We had more wins than losses-it was a good way to start the season," she added.

McCabe has 10 players out this season, four boys and six girls. Top returners for the Cards are Brent Sheirbon, Nancy Morter, Kristine Bedortha, Brandi Ball and Kari Morgan.

Ruth Locust to meet

Ruth Locust Chapter No. 32, Order of the Eastern Star will hold their next stated meeting Monday, April 8, at the Heppner Masonic Hall at 8 p.m.

All members are encouraged to attend as this is the chapter's Honor and Friendship Night. Neighboring chapters have been invited also.

Track teams start season

By Anne Morter

The lone tracksters started off their season Saturday March 30 at the well-attended and highly competitive Morrow County Invitational in Umatilla. Twenty-three of the smaller schools from the area attended, with Elgin winning both the boys' and girls' divisions.

The lone girls scored just two points. Wendy Anderson put the shot 30 feet for a sixth place ribbon and Crystal Minster also nabbed a sixth place, running the 200 meters in 29.33.

The boys scored eight points. Gabe Garcia was third in the 200 meters with a time of 24.24. Mike Garrett placed sixth in the javelin with a throw of 141 feet 5 inches, and Ryan Halvorsen jumped 37 feet in the triple jump for sixth place.

Although the Cards didn't score a lot of points, Coach Del LaRue saw some promising efforts. He said he was especially pleased with his boys' 1600-meter relay team made up of David Wagenblast, Gabe Garcia, Mac Lovett and Ryan Halvorsen. They won their heat and missed placing by just a fraction of a second. LaRue also got a good effort from David Wagenblast in the discus and the 800 meters.

Lexington News

By Delpha Jones

--Eldon and Barbara Gilbert recently attended the ARC (Association for Retarded Citizens) meeting at the state capital in Salem. En route home they visited a daughter, Donna, at The Dalles.

--Betty Breeding and daughter Janet, who just finished her training in the U.S. Air Force, spent several days visiting with friends and relatives locally. Janet will leave soon for Okinawa where she will be stationed for two years.

--Several of the Lexington Odd-fellows and Rebekahs attended the meeting in Heppner where the grand master had his official visit. A lovely dinner was served by the San Souci Rebekahs. Plans for the future of the order were discussed as well as projects such as arthritis fund, eye bank and others.

--Hilda and Joe Yocom spent Easter at the home of their daughter and family, Mildred West in Pendleton. A daughter, Debra Jones, and her daughters were also present from Spokane.

--Don't forget Rebekah card party Saturday, April 6.

--Plans have been completed for the Morrow County Historical Society weekend getaway. The society would like anyone interested to call, so that the reservations may be completed.
