

Five Ione tracksters advance to state

By Anne Morter
Five Ione tracksters advanced to the state track meet this weekend on the basis of their performances at the district meet last weekend. Individually, Janie Cupps qualified in both the high jump and the 300 hurdles. Cupps finished second in the high jump with a season's best jump of 4'10". She also finished second in the 300 hurdles with a time of 54.21. Cupps set a new school record in the preliminaries where she ran 52.7. The old school record was set by her sister, Mary Cupps in 1989. First and second place finishers advance to the State IA meet.

Other placers in the meet were April Taylor who placed fourth in the 800 meters with a time of 2:46.39 and Wendy Anderson, who was fifth in the shot with a throw of 30'6". The girls' team scored 22 points to finish seventh in the meet. Weston-McEwen took first place in the meet with 108 points.

In boys' competition, Deacon Heideman was the district champion in the discus, where he threw 134'9 1/2". Because of a previous commitment, Heideman will not be attending the state meet. The Cards will send their 1600-relay team, who surprised everyone by cutting eight seconds off their best time to finish second in 3:47.44. Relay team members are Gabe Garcia, Mike Garrett, David Wagenblast and Mac Lovett.

The Cards scored the remainder of their 33 points with nonqualifying finishes. Garcia was third in the 400 in 54.35. The 400-relay team was fifth in 47.96. David Wagenblast finished fifth in the 800, 2:11.03; Mac Lovett was fifth in the 200, 23.96; and sixth in the 100, 12.1; and Justin Miller was fifth in the 3000, 11:00.38. Powerful Wahtonka won the boys' portion of the meet with 134 points.

"I was really pleased with the way all the kids performed at the district meet," said coach Del LaRue. "The relay team was very determined (to qualify) and so was Janie," he added.

The state meet is this Friday and Saturday at Springfield High School.

Nancy Morter qualifies for state tennis meet

Brent Sheirbon and Nancy Morter

By Anne Morter

Nancy Morter qualified for the state tennis tournament on the basis of her third-place finish at last weekend's district tennis tournament held at the Tri-Cities Court Club. Morter upset the number-one seed, Mel Tarter of Umatilla, in the semi-finals on her way to a third-place finish. The top three seeds advance to the state tournament.

On Friday, Morter defeated Kim Guyer of Mac Hi, 6-0, 6-3 and then came right back to down Kristy Hoch of Umatilla, 6-4, 6-3. On Saturday morning, she wore down Mel Tarter 7-5, 6-2, in a match that lasted two hours. After a half-hour break, she was back on the court again for another marathon match. This time, Morter fell to Shandie Johnson, 3-6, 6-3, 7-5. That loss forced her into a "playback" situation, where the number-two and three players had to play off for the second spot. This match came just minutes after finishing the match with Johnson, leaving her without much energy. Lucy McCoy of Sherman County defeated Morter, 6-0, 6-3 in that final match, putting Nancy into the number three slot.

Brent Sheirbon advanced to the semi-finals before being eliminated from play. On Friday, Sheirbon defeated James Purvis of Umatilla, 7-5, 6-1, and then downed Art Patton of Sherman County, 7-6, 6-3. On Saturday, he ran into Javier Ingles of Umatilla and lost 4-6, 6-1, 6-1. He was eliminated when he fell to Ben Dean of Weston-McEwen, 6-0, 6-0.

Kristine Bedortha was the only other Cardinal to win her opening round game. She defeated Melissa Kinney of Arlington, 8-3 in her opener but fell to Kristy Hoch of Umatilla 6-3, 6-0 in her next game. Both doubles' teams lost their openers. Genna Ellison and Katie Felton of Wahtonka defeated Kari Morgan and Brandi Ball, 8-3, and Tracy Hamilton and Demaree Ingram, also of Wahtonka, defeated Heidi Orem and Ericka Bergstrom.

In other boys' action, Tony Bjerk and Aaron Heideman lost to Bryce Coelsch and Ed DePate of Sherman County, 6-4, 6-7, 6-4. Mike Green fell to Steve Payne of Mac Hi, 8-1.

Nancy Morter will play her opening match in the state tournament at 2 p.m. on Thursday at Mt. Hood Community College in Gresham.

Ione Garden Club visits nursery

The Ione Garden Club members spent a most interesting day May 8 when they visited the Westwinds Nursery where Sheila Boettcher demonstrated making of moss baskets and container gardening. Besides garden club members, guests for the day were Katherine Lindstrom, Thelma Lindner, Beth Bryant, Pat Wright and Darcie Robinson.

After looking around the nursery and selecting plants, those present went to the Golden Corral for a no-host luncheon before returning home.

The next club meeting will be a no-host luncheon on June 12 at Beechers where Thelma Roe of Hermiton will show how to use dried flowers in gifts and decorations for the home. Anyone interested should contact a garden club member.

The clubs observation of Garden Week the first week of June will be under the supervision of Birdine Tullis and Pat Pettyjohn.
