In the Service

Marine Pvt. Will J. Martin, son of Carl and Geri Martin, Heppner, recently completed motor transport school, conducted by Schools Battalion, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

During the course, Martin received both classroom and hands-on instruction on the operation of the M-151 jeep, the 5-ton truck and the new M-293 automatic 5-ton truck. He was also shown the proper procedures for traveling in convoys, blackout condition driving and rough terrain driving.

A 1989 graduate of Heppner High School, he joined the Marine Corps in September 1990.

Navy Seaman Recruit Matthew S. Howard, son of Kenneth and Maureen Howard, Lexington, has completed recruit training at Recruit Training Command in San Diego.

During Howard's eight-week training cycle, he studied general military subjects designed to prepare him for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic fields.

His studies included seamanship, close order drill, Naval history and first aid. Personnel who complete this course of instruction are eligible for three hours of college credit in Physical Education and Hygiene.

A 1984 graduate of Heppner High School, he joined the Navy Reserves in December 1990.

Cheneys go to Houston

By Anne Morter
 Dave and Wilma Cheney of Cecil have returned from a trip to Houston, Texas, where they attended the graduation of their daughter, Cathy. Cathy, a 1982 graduate of Ione High School, earned her graduate nurse certificate and associates degree from North Harris County College. She is employed at Northwest Medical Center in Houston where she works as a nurse in the surgical intensive care unit. Cathy will take her registered nurse's board examinations in July.

Heppner students attend writing festival

On May 3 and 4, Heather Eckman, Amy Brownfield, Autumn Naccarato, Jeanine Michael, Bethanie Cookston, Chad Skroch and Ann Wick attended the Oregon Writing Festival. While at the festival the students attended writing classes taught by English teachers from surrounding areas. The students also attended seminars and shared their writing with students from other schools. Over 900 students attended the writing festival. According to the students, "it was a great experience. The only hard part was saying goodbye to all our new found friends."
