Ewes R Us

By Jenny Krein, Reporter

The Ewes R Us sheep club have met several times since the beginning of the year. The first meeting of the year was Jan. 14. Officers elected were: president Ryan Currin; vice president-Travis Greenup; secretary-Shelly Ashbeck; reporter-Jenny Krein. Members also set goals for money making projects which included a potato sale St. Patrick's weekend at the sheep dog trials, washing trucks for Britt Logging. The second meeting March 4 members organized a schedule for the sheep dog trials and the potato sale. Mr. Rill told the group what their responsibilities would be while working at the trials. Jennifer Rankin and Mandi Gutierrez gave presentations.

The third meeting of the year was held on April 15. The group made $243 at the potato sale and are planning to buy wool clippers with the money. The weigh-in for fair is June 8. Members were asked if they were interested in judging at Tygh Valley on June 4. Several members were.

The fitting and showing day in Ir-rigon will be July 26. The group is making arrangements for picking out and buying lambs. They were to bring a 3 lb. coffee can to the next meeting.

The fourth meeting of the year was held May 13. Members asked when they should pick out and buy their lambs. Members measured feed in coffee cans and the correct weights to feed were marked off. Rides were planned for Tygh Valley judging. Sarah Britt gave a presentation on telling a lamb's age by its teeth. A few members were put in charge of organizing the truck wash.

The next meeting was planned for May 21 at 6:30 p.m. and was a judging meeting. Members must have attended to be able to participate at Tygh Valley.

North-Lex Livestock

By Tina Kemp, Reporter

The North-Lex Livestock meeting was called to order by vice president Justin Miller.
