

Martins, Nelsons attend conference

By Anne Morter
Fredrick and Helen Martin and Chuck and Lisa Nelson were delegates to a recent Central Pacific Conference of the United Church of Christ. The annual spring assembly was held at the church's camp, Camp Adams, near Colton, Oregon, June 14-16. The conference included delegates from Oregon, Idaho and southern Washington.

A highlight of the conference was the dedication of the camp's new building, Trinity Hall.

The keynote speaker for the conference was Dr. Gabriel Fackrey, professor of Christian theology at the Andover Newton Theological Institute in Newton Center, MA. His theme was "Educating the whole church; forward to the basics."

Several resolutions were discussed and passed concerning universal health care, call to Christian-Muslim dialogue, and issues pertaining to homosexuality.

Next year's spring assembly will be held in Mountain Home, Idaho, from May 15-17.

Wendy Anderson, a student at Ione High School has received the United States Army Reserve National Scholar/Athlete Award.

Anderson was presented with a scholar/athlete award medallion on May 19 by Sergeant Jeffery Ackerman of the U.S. Army Recruiting Station in Pendleton.

Anderson shares this honor with winners in high schools throughout the country, from Florida to Hawaii. Each year the Army Reserve sponsors the program to recognize and honor top male and female high school scholars and athletes across the nation.

--Thursday was a busy day for Bunchgrass Rebekah Lodge and Holly Rebekah Lodge when state president Lora Dickinson, and the ISG Donna Blades, visited the lodges, meeting with Bunchgrass in the afternoon.

Thursday evening the Holly members and guests with the DG Marshall John Blades enjoyed a dinner at the V & G Tavern and then held a most instructive meeting in the evening. NG Kathy Tellechea presided. Guests were introduced along with Geri Martin, Eastern Oregon chairman of the Living Legacy committee, and Hilda Yocom, DDP. A tribute to the Rainbow was given by Holly Mosteller, and a tribute to the Hummingbird, Delpha Jones. Gifts were presented the guests with the president receiving a lovely shirt adorned with hummingbirds and orchids made by Luella Taylor. A school of instruction was given with the state president and the DG Marshall speaking. Refreshments were served in the dining room by the hostesses, Hilda Yocom and Geri Martin.

--Wednesday Hilda Yocom, Delpha Jones and Valda Smith attended the meeting of Sunbeam Rebekah Lodge in Hermiston for the president's official visit. At the meeting Donna Blades presented the lodge the cash award won at the assembly in Portland for first place winner in the CrimeAlert program. The project will be on display at the Umatilla County Fair and at the Morrow County Fair.

--Saturday Geri Martin and Delpha Jones attended the district meeting at Joseph when the president paid her official visit. Geri Martin was introduced at the meeting as one of the president's appointed committee people. The group was entertained by the recreation of the bank hold-up on Main Street in Joseph, which is one of that city's tourist attractions.

According to the story, desperadoes on horseback robbed the bank, had a shoot-out with the sheriff and one person got away with the loot, never having been found.

--Eldon and Barbara Gilbert returned home on Sunday from a week's stay in Eugene where they attended the state grange session as voting delegates from Wheatland Pomona.

--Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Baker and Crystal were visitors last week in Seaside and Lincoln City.

--Kristin Skow, daughter of Jeanette and Tom Skow of Redmond, is visiting her grandparents Phylis and Delbert Piper.

--Brenda and Janie Jones from Spokane, WA, are visiting their grandparents Hilda and Joe Yocom.

--Marie Steagall was a Saturday visitor to Hood River where she attended a party honoring her granddaughter.

--The Breshears family reunion was held Sunday at the Maryhill Park on the River. Those attending from this area were Marie Steagall, Bob and Beverly Steagall, Pat Dougherty and Cindi Kannard, Deanna Brandehagen, Howard and June Crowell and grandchildren, Edwina Richeldirfer, Vera and Dave Steagall and Helen and Evert Crump.

--Vacation Bible School at the Lexington Baptist Church ended on Friday with a program at the church. Around 44 students were enrolled. The evening of the program the Sunday school rooms were decorated as Biblical scenes such as a market place, sheep grazing area, a synagogue and a carpenter shop. The youngsters also escorted their parents on a "trip" through the Bible giving them a bit of history and Biblical stories. Following the special songs and the presentation of certificates, refreshments were served and visiting was enjoyed.

Many Thanks

To the Editor:

I am taking this opportunity to say a huge "thank you" to all of the wonderful people in this community who helped the Doctors Appreciation Day Committee: Jackie Bergstrom; Ann Murray; Claudia Hughes; Joyce Hughes; Judie Laughlin and Ann Schwarz.

Beginning with Dr. Jeanne's Luncheon: Thank you to the Catholic Church for the use of the Parish Hall for the luncheon; thank you to the Elk's ladies who prepared the hors d'oeuvres and the Soroptimists for the salads and decorating the hall; the wonderful singing was performed by Patty Smith, Irrigon; thought provoking "Daughters" was performed by Crystal Minster and Heidi Nelson, members of the Ione Drama Club; and a speech, "Life Before Costco" was given by Jackie Bergstrom.

Thank you to everyone involved in putting the Golf Play Day for Dr. Ed together: the members of the Willow Creek Country Club and the ladies of the club for refreshments.

I would also like to thank the merchants who assisted me in meeting my "deadlines" as I ran in and out of their stores asking for "this" and "that" and still greeting me with a smile. To the Gazette-Times for donating the fliers.

And then, the Italian Dinner: Thank you to Cindy and John Breidenbach for the preparation of the meal and to the high school students who served the dinner; Trish Sweeney and Sharon Harrison for doing such a super job of decorating the Elks, adding a flavor of Italy; thank you to Marcia Anderson for helping with the menu and helping us obtain part of the decorations from the Episcopal Church.

A great big thank you to Becky Nourse, Ben Smith and Les Moscoso who were the D.J.'s for the after dinner dance and were the last to leave in the wee hours of the morning.

There are a few people who deserve special recognition because, without their assistance, Doctor Appreciation Day would not have been as successful as it was. A special thanks to Ann Murray for the time, energy and loving care she gave to this project, especially, in making all the arrangements for all of the special guests and personally making sure that Mary Mobley got here (with help from Gretchen. Thank you too. Can you keep a secret!)

Thank you to the wonderful "invisible" button maker, Judie Laughlin, who designed and put the buttons together.

Last but not least, a grateful thank you to the wonderful "twosome" who were the Mistress of Ceremonies at the ladies luncheon and the Master of Ceremonies at the Italian Dinner. Claudia Hughes and Larry Mills. They always do a spectacular job.

And to everyone, WELL DONE.

Sincerely,
LoRayne Bowman, Chairman
Doctor Appreciation Day
