Ice cream social planned

The congregation of Valby Lutheran Church, located on the Valby Road 16 1/2 miles out of Lone, will have an ice cream social on Sunday, July 21 at 6 p.m. There will be homemade ice cream, cakes and pies, toppings and other goodies, along with "some of the best amateur entertainment" from Morrow County. This event is being co-sponsored by Aid Association for Lutherans so the 105 year old Valby Lutheran Church building can have a new red leak-proof roof.

"So bring your family and friends and come out to the Valby Lutheran Church late afternoon of July 21 for some good old fashioned homemade ice cream, festivities and preserve a little sacred history of Morrow County," said Pastor Stan Hoobing.

Support group plans meetings

A community support group has been formed in Heppner. The support group includes people who have cancer, multiple sclerosis or any other illness. It provides support for people whose lives have been changed by a traumatic experience. Caregivers, family members and friends are also welcome. Meetings are held at the Heppner Episcopal Church parish hall on the first Monday of each month at 8 p.m.

For further information call Merilee McDowell 676-5238.

Kids reading program underway at grade school

The Heppner Elementary School summer reading program is open for business under the direction of Lynda Baker, elementary teacher. Children are invited to the library on Mondays from 1:30 to 4 p.m. and on Thursdays from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

For each book read a star sticker will be placed on the child's paper star on the bulletin board at the library. When a child reads 10 books he or she will receive a certificate from the governor.

Baker, who has a degree in elementary education, said that all kids are welcome to come and listen to stories and tapes and read books. Besides reading aloud to the kids she has two listening stations set up, one for younger kids and one for older kids. "I don't mind if parents drop their children off," she added. The program will run until Aug. 11. On July 25 and Aug. 1 the reading program will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Guest to preach at Hope, Valby

The Rev. Richard Pounds, the religious and community services coordinator for the Bethphage Mission West in Pendleton, will be the guest preacher on Sunday, July 14 at Hope and Valby Lutheran Churches. Rev. Pounds will deliver a message entitled "People of Influence," based on the Gospel of St. Matthew 5:13-16. Services are 9 a.m. at Valby and 11 a.m. at Hope.

Rev. Pounds served for 6 1/2 years as pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Pendleton. Prior to that, he pastored several churches in the San Francisco Bay area. He was born and raised in the Bay area.

Bethphage Mission West is an affiliated ministry of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America that has been providing residential and vocational services to over 50 adults with developmental disabilities in Oregon since February 1, 1990. Bethphage Mission West is part of a tradition with nearly 80 years of experience in working with people of disability. This tradition began in 1913 in Axtel, Nebraska under the leadership of an Augustana Lutheran pastor, K.G. William Dahl.
