

Man sentenced on drug charges

A California man was sentenced Tuesday in Morrow County Circuit Court for his part in a clandestine drug lab discovered near Boardman last year according to Morrow County District Attorney Jeff Wallace.

Charles Lee Marlow, 50, of Mountain Ranch, California, pled guilty to conspiracy to manufacture a controlled substance before Circuit Judge Pro-Tem Ralph Currin. The charges arose from the October 25, 1990, discovery of a clandestine ephedrine lab at a residence on Kunze Road, south of Boardman. Probation officers had gone to the residence, occupied by Michael Nelson, on a routine visit. Upon their arrival, they found the working drug lab in a barn near the house and called police, who arrived shortly. Nelson was arrested at the scene, while Marlow fled. He was later arrested in Lewis County, Idaho, in March, 1991, and extradited back to Oregon for trial, according to Wallace.

Judge Currin placed Marlow on two-year's formal probation and imposed 120 custody units of which 60 can be used for a jail sentence. This is the maximum sentence which can be imposed under state sentencing guidelines, given Marlow's previous criminal record. The court also ordered a standard range of drug related probation conditions, including random drug testing and search of vehicle, person and property for the presence of drugs, said Wallace.

Michael Nelson pled guilty in January to conspiracy to manufacture a controlled substance as a result of the incident and is currently serving a 17-month prison sentence. One other defendant is awaiting trial according to Wallace.

Jodi Hall elected to FFA position

Jodi Hall, granddaughter of Gene and Harriet Hall, Heppner was recently elected as state secretary of The Pennsylvania FFA Association. Jodi is a 1991 graduate of State College Area High School and is currently enrolled at The Pennsylvania State University with a dual major in agricultural education and production horticulture. She has also been accepted as a participant in the University Scholars program. Her state-FFA office will involve travelling and speaking on behalf of the Pennsylvania FFA association during the next year. Jodi was president of the State College FFA Chapter during her senior year and chapter reporter her junior year.

Jodi was also chosen state winner in the agri-science student competition during the annual state FFA activities week held at the Pennsylvania State University's University Park Campus. Her application featured research she had conducted dealing with hydroponic production of vegetables. Jodi's other FFA accomplishments include winning the 1991 North-Central Region Star Agri-Business Award, state record keeping contest in both 1990 and 1991, and third in the state extemporaneous speaking contest. She placed as a finalist in state FFA public speaking contests the last four years and was on the state FFA choir three years and in the talent contest for each of the last four years. She sang and danced in the National FFA Talent Program in Kansas City, MO. this last year.

Jodi has earned varsity letters in basketball and track and is active in 4-H. Jodi's service activities include Special Olympics Arts Festival Hug-a-Buddy program, school tutoring program, reading for the blind, student advisory council to the school board and Key Club.

Trevor McCoy qualifies for national high school rodeo

By Anne Morter

Trevor McCoy of Condon High School Rodeo Team qualified for the National High School Rodeo Finals in Shawnee, Oklahoma, with a third place finish in the calf roping at the state competition.

Only the top four in the state competition advanced to nationals. McCoy went into the competition ranked third in the state. He roped his calf in 18.5 in the first go-round to place second and in 17.3 in the second go-round for first place. Based on those performances, he was leading all the ropers entering the short go. Roping in knee-deep mud and steady rain in Hillsboro, McCoy missed tying his calf in the final round and received a no time. His other two performances were good enough to place him in the third place slot. McCoy is the son of Patty Kayser and Bill McCoy, and grandson of Pat Pettyjohn of Ione.

Trevor's sister, Katie McCoy, recently won the all-around title for pee wee girls at the Mt. Adams Junior Rodeo at Glenwood, Washington. The rodeo was held June 22 and 23.

McCoy was first in the breakaway roping, first in the goat tying, second in the poles and fourth in the barrels.

At that same rodeo, Angela and Tiffany Munkers of Lexington also participated in the pee wee division. Angela won the poles while Tiffany won the barrels, placed third in the poles and fourth in goat tying. The Munkers girls' parents are Maryann and Barry Munkers.

Maureen Lindsay graduates from U of P

Maureen T. Lindsay received a bachelor of arts in history with a minor in business administration, magna cum laude, from the University of Portland during the spring commencement ceremony May 5.

Lindsay, daughter of Larry and Corrine Lindsay, Lexington, is a 1987 graduate of Heppner High.

While at U of P she was a member of the honors program and Alpha Lambda national honor society. She was also involved in campus ministry. University President Rev. David Tyson, C.S.C., conferred degrees on 408 bachelor's and 171 master's candidates during the ceremony in the Earle A. Chiles Center on campus.

The University of Portland is an independently governed, residential, four-year Catholic university offering a curriculum of arts, sciences, humanities and professional programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Historical Society meets

--The Morrow County Historical Society met on Monday at Paul's Restaurant in Irrigon, for a no-host dinner and meeting. Donna and Don Eppenbach were hosts for the meeting. Since this was the last meeting before the annual meeting there was a lot of business to conduct.

Reports were heard from Ruth McCabe and Delpha Jones. They had presented one certificate and bonds to three Ione students for winning the yearly essay contest, on "Irrigation in Morrow County". The essay is offered to junior high students as an opportunity to learn more about the county. The group also motored to Irrigon where they presented Alejandro Torres her third place prize.

A report was heard on the bus trip to Medford and Jean Nelson gave a report on the cemeteries in Morrow County, the work being done on the Oregon Trail and what is planned for the future. A report was heard on the Chronicles, which will be ready by the yearly meeting in October. The Chronicles are dedicated to the servicemen from the county. The group will have a table at the 4th of July celebration in Ione, with Dorris Graves in charge. A report was heard concerning the work done at the Rhea Creek cemetery where stones were set up and a general cleaning done. Plans were discussed to repair the fence. Barton Clark and Cecil Jones comprise this committee. The committee for the fair booth this year is Harold Peck, Sue Vinson, Ruth McCabe and Pat Sweeney. A table and watermelon slices are planned for the August 19 celebration in Boardman. The committee consists of Jerry Peck, Donna Eppenbach and Delpha Jones.

The annual meeting will be held at the regular time, on Sunday, Oct.

6. The meeting will start out with a potluck turkey dinner followed by a program. There will be special music, and a speaker, Joyce Badgley Smith, from Baker, who will present "Fanny the Oregon Trail Woman". Mrs. Badgley opened the May 15 session in the house of representatives in Salem with her performance. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this meeting and invited to become a part of this Morrow County organization. Refreshments were provided by the hosts for the evening.

--Lexington Grange met for their yearly picnic at the cabin in the mountains with Barbara and Eldon Gilbert and daughter Lisa as hosts. A bountiful potluck dinner was enjoyed, with a short business meeting following. The afternoon was spent playing cards and visiting. There were about 28 in attendance. This is the last meeting for this group until September. Pomona Grange will meet July 28 at Anson Wright Park with dinner at 1 p.m. and the memorial in the afternoon.

Christian Life Center plans camp out

The Christian Life Center will be having its annual camping trip to Cutsforth Park Friday through Sunday, July 12 to 14. The Sunday morning church service will be held at Cutsforth Park at 11 a.m., followed by a potluck picnic.

There will be no Sunday School or church service at the church building. If anyone needs a ride to the park on Sunday morning, please call Pastor Tim Van Cleave at 676-5448.
