1 CARD OF THANKS

and colleagues as well as the speeches by friends, colleagues and city and county officials were touching. We were roasted and toasted. We laughed and cried all in the same evening.

The mystery guest was a big surprise. Mary had never been west of West Virginia, which isn't much west of North Carolina. On the plane trip out, her first flight ever, she looked out the window. She saw fluffy white below her, which she assumed were clouds and the most beautiful blue sky above. She pulled the shade, however, and shut her eyes. She'd heard about a lady from North Carolina on her first transcontinental flight to California who dared to look out the window all the way and died on arrival at the Los Angeles Airport--apparently of shear fright. Mary wanted to get to DAD--alive.

Mary is a special person in our lives and as she was portrayed in the Gazette-Times, is a hero in her own right. She enjoyed her visit here and as were we, overwhelmed that a community would think enough of us to fly her out for a visit.

The evening successfully culminated when Rudy Bergstrom handed us a well-made video of the extravaganza--the only copy. Afterwards we stayed and danced and danced and danced.

Thank you to everyone of you who contributed and attended DAD. It reinforced our basic belief that ingenuity, creativity, and a sense of belonging are alive and well in rural America.

Thank you to all the people who sent cards, flowers, and other goodies. And thank you to LoRayne Bowman for listing everyone in her thank you so we can identify and thank you individually.

We only hope we can continue to serve this community for many years to come.

Sincerely,
The Berretta's
