Still time to enter parade this Saturday

Catch the Pioneer Spirit and come on out for the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Parade beginning at 10 a.m., Saturday, August 17, along Main Street in Heppner.

For those who really want to get into the spirit of things, registration will be set up at the Green Feed Store, 242 Linden Way in Heppner, beginning at 9 a.m. For early registration stop by Van Marter and Kahl Insurance office, located at 187 N. Main St. Entrants are asked to fill out their registration forms in advance if possible. If you have any questions, or need any special arrangements, contact parade organizer Bob Kahl at 676-9113 or 676-9422.

Kahl suggests that entrants plan to be at Green Feed between 9 and 9:30 a.m. to get things set up before the parade. The queens and courts and the automotive entries need to be signed in and ready by 9:30 a.m. if they wish to be judged and become eligible for ribbons or prize money. Over $400 will be awarded in prize this year. All ribbons and prize money will be given out at the fairgrounds at the fair board office Saturday afternoon. Prize money not picked up Saturday afternoon will be mailed.

Those who plan on bringing horses are asked not to unload at Green Feed because the area tends to become congested.

Entry categories include commercial floats (business sponsored); community float (community sponsored); junior riding group; senior riding group; individual horse and rider; family riding group; comic division; courts and royalty; antique autos; civic service club; drill teams; bands and music (schools); bands and music (other); and other miscellaneous entries.

Mail registration forms as soon as possible, to Morrow County Fair and Rodeo, Parade Committee, P.O. Box 755, Heppner.
