Chamber Chatter
By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

If you should glimpse an unclad dummy wearing a cowboy hat in my front seat; a pickup going past with all kinds of oddities; a person carrying a suitcase and clothing into the Chamber Office; people running around like the Mad Hatter; never fear, they're just caught between 'Catching the Pioneer Spirit' and 'It's A Kick' preparations. It's definitely fair time, county and state.

Just $1 for gate admission to see the fair. Chamber will be meeting for lunch in the grassy area by the Snack Shack on Thursday. Stop by the Chamber booth to catch the Chamber Board of Directors with the pioneer spirit. Support the livestock sale...these 4-H'ers have worked hard all year. Take in the parade Saturday and don't miss the rodeos. If your guests have some slack time, take them up to the lake, for a visit to the museum, or souvenir purchasing where they can experience good old western hospitality. Catch the spirit, have a great weekend, and remember all those county-wide volunteers who make the weekend possible.
