

Historical Society hears program on pioneer women

By Delpha Jones
The annual meeting of the Morrow County Historical Society met on Sunday, Oct. 6 at the Lexington Grange Hall for their regular meeting. A turkey potluck dinner was served at 1:30 p.m. with the meeting following. Several door prizes were given during the afternoon with a prize to the oldest member present-Rachel Harnett; coming the farthest-Margaret Hays. After singing the Star Spangled Banner and the Pledge of Allegiance the meeting opened with a blessing by Don Eppembach. Minutes and treasurer's reports were read and accepted. Two solos were performed by Kristine Bedortha from Ione. Reports were heard on the Fourth of July, tables in Ione, the annual bus trip to Jacksonville and Roseburg, the fair booth which won second place and the Wagon Train, which recently came to Morrow County, enjoying a potluck lunch at the Ione park. There was no presentation of a century farm this year. Jean Nelson gave a report on the Wells Springs project, and the plans for planting another tree to replace the one blown down in the summer storm. Reports were also heard from various members, with Marsha Sweek telling of some of the happenings of the Morrow County Museum. Four directors whose terms were up were re-elected for four year terms. They were Jerry Peck, Barbara Bloodworth, Barton Clark and Pat Sweeney.

The Eppembach family from Irigon and Umatilla and Gospel singers from the Baptist church in Irigon sang several songs.

Joyce Badgley Smith of Baker City was the main program of the afternoon. She created a character named 'Fanny' a composite of individual pioneer women, with true stories taken from diaries of Pioneer Women. 'Fanny' was dressed in clothing worn by her grandmother when she crossed the plains to Oregon.

The meeting ended with the group singing "God Be With You Til We Meet Again." The dinner committee, the Chronicles committee, the speaker, vocalist and all who helped in any way during the past year received recognition from the president.

Mellerdrammer troupe performs to standing room only crowd

Playing to a sold-out-standing-room only house Saturday night, Mrs. Calvert's second grade songsters, the H.I.T. Troupe's "No, No a Million Times No" and the South Morrow Community Choir concert came off as a hit with an audience of over 300, ending in a standing ovation.

From the candle-lit tables where guests enjoyed both "sinfully delicious" and "virtuously weight-conscious" desserts, through the boos, hisses and ahs and applause appropriate to the old-time mellerdrammer to the superbly rendered numbers of the community chorus, all went well.

Audience applause rated Tony Becket's performance as the hero Noble Hart the top hit of the show. Playing a "kinder dumb" young farmer, Tony repeatedly broke into tears and held his rural uneducated dialect throughout, even in his solo the Nellie. "I need you like a polecat needs the perfection of smell."

Playing opposite him, Sherry Bingham as Nellie Quackingbush carried the "dedicated" vocabulary of several syllable words like a pro and brought enthusiastic applause with her solo, "I'm as Pure as the Driven Snow."

In top-hat and tails, Louis Carlson, portraying Stafford Blackman with his sneaking gait, evil laugh and bass solo "I'm a Bold, Bad Man" was indeed the traditional villain. His accomplice Jackie Bergstrom as Gwendolyn Finefeathers, was truly the "femme fatale" in sequined black gown and red feather boa.

Audience pleasers also were Chuck Nelson and Vi Wilgers as the blustery, forceful farmer and his old-maid housekeeper.

New to the stage and showing much promise, Joe Healy as a farm boy, Iffy Cann, carried an old shotgun throughout the play, even when "Walking with Emmeline" his girlfriend, Heidi Nelson. He provided the climax by shooting the villain. "I was shooting at a chicken hawk and shot a skunk instead."

The trio of city girls (Lori Straley, Cindi Doherty and Sherry Hiatt), the bouncy middle-school junior high chorus and the gingham-clad milkmaids added special touches to round out the musical.

Following the intermission the show moved from the ridiculous to the sublime when the Community Choir gave a performance ending with a lively rendition of Hank Williams' "Jambalaya."

It was an evening of music and fun. Music directors Kathy Hoskins, Kitty Bredemeier, Geneva Mathews, Rikka Tews and Bob Isted are to be commended.

Cards lose see-saw match to Devils

By Anne Morter
The Ione Lady Cardinals came off so close but just couldn't get around the towering Condon Blue Devils on the volleyball court last Thursday evening. Condon won the hard-fought, see-saw match 15-10, 15-17, 15-10 in front of a large crowd at the Ione gym.

In the first game, the Cards dug themselves a 0-6 hole but climbed out to take the lead at 7-6 and then again at 9-7. At that point, they seemed to lose their momentum while Condon sent a girl to the serve line who served out the game for them.

The second game was another close one. Condon seemingly had the edge when they lead 14-12, their first of two game point attempts. Ione tied it up at 14 and it was then that coach Greg Likens knew they would win that game. "The girls have not lost a game this year that went into extra points," said Likens.

And the lady Cardinals didn't break their string, nipping Condon by the required two points.

The start of the third game looked good for the Cards when they opened up a 4-1 lead, but then the emotional edge from game two slipped from their grasp and Condon got back into the game. While the lady Cards struggled, Condon went on to take the match.

"Overall the girls played pretty well. I expected them to win but they didn't quite get the job done," said Likens.

Statistically speaking several individuals had good games. Amy Pointer was 14 of 16 hitting with four kills and also served 100 percent. Janie Cupps made 13 points on 17 of 19 serving while Nancy Morter was nine for 12 in hitting with four kills. She was also 12 for 12 at the serve line. Kari Morgan was 22 of 26 in hits with six kills and three stuff-blocks and Brandi Ball served 14 of 15 with nine points.

The Ione JV team lost their match 15-13, 15-7, 15-5.

The Cards had one other game last week, played on Tuesday Oct. 8 at Arlington. Coach Likens reported that the girls played loose and actually had fun on the court, one of the first times this year. Ione won the match 15-4, 15-6.

Janie Cupps led the Cardinal effort with 9-9 serving, eight points and six aces. She was also eight for nine in hitting with three kills and two stuff blocks. April Taylor came into the game and served well, making six of her seven serve attempts with five aces and six points. Amy Pointer had 100 percent serving with six points and three aces.

The JV squad won 15-6.

The Ione Middle School Cardinals kept up their perfect record as they beat Arlington on October 10. Arlington has a coed volleyball team since they don't have a football team.

Ione fell behind in the first game 5-2, however, the Cards came alive and Marie Tworek served nine points in the game to put Ione in the lead. IMS finished out the game 15-12.

Game number two was a close race 16-14. LaRee Anderson served 100 percent and had six points. The lead went back and forth but Melissa McElligott soon closed the game for the Cards. McElligott served four unreturned serves to finish off the Goslings.

Ione has a 4-0 season record and was looking forward to trying to make it 5-0 against Umatilla Tuesday. The Cardinals will also play in an "A" tournament in Stanfield on October 19. Ione will go up against the Heppner Ponies for their first game. Ione defeated the Ponies in an earlier match. Game time is 9 a.m.

It's on Fox 49!
