

Creative Care preschool adds to scholarship fund

By Anne Morter
The Creative Care Preschool recently finished a Tupperware fundraiser, netting nearly $160 for their scholarship fund. The fund provides tuition for students who otherwise might not be able to attend. Application information for the scholarship fund is strictly confidential information.
The Creative Care Preschool supporters will once again sponsor this year's community yard sale. Although plans have not been finalized the tentative date for the event is November 9 with the sale to run between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Table space will be for rent to anyone with items they wish to sell. More information will be available later.

Roger Williams to take new position

Roger Williams, ranger of the U.S. Forest Service in Heppner for the past four years, has announced that he has accepted a position with the Fremont Forest at Lakeview, near Klamath Falls in southern Oregon. Williams will be receiving a promotion and will assume a new role in "timber staff and fire."
"We loved it here," said

Williams' wife, Carol. "It will be tough to compare to Heppner." Carol said that Roger is expected to begin at Lakeview around the first of the year and they and their children Mike and Jenny, will leave Heppner after Christmas. She said that the new Heppner ranger is also expected to arrive the first of the year.

'Mellerdrammer' takes show on road

By Anne Morter
The cast of "No, No A Million Times, No" will take their show on the road with a performance in lone on October 29. The popular "mellerdrammer," presented by the Heppner Intergenerational Theater Group, will start with dessert at 7 p.m. The play itself will start at 7:30 p.m. in the Lone High School cafeteria. The community choir will also perform that evening.

Admission is $2 for senior citizens and children ages 10 and under. Anyone over age 11 will be charged $3. A special family rate of $7 is also available. Admission includes dessert.
Tickets will only be available at the door.
